UNIONIZING UNCLE SAM

Wilson is Aiding the Agitators.

Plan is to Put All Federal Employees in Clutches of Gompers.

Strike in New York Continues to Worry Both Police and Populace.

[BY LEASED WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 13.—With the memory still fresh in the minds of the action ten days ago of the four railroad brotherhoods in obtaining the enactment of a law for increased wages, officials of the government are standing by while Federal employees are making ready to strike with a newly-formed union. This organization, which plans to have on its rolls all of the government clerks in the country, is becoming a power.

Representative John I. Nolan of California, author of the bill fixing the pay as the minimum pay for government employees, is aiding in the organization of the union. Mr. Nolan, who is a Progressive, served eight years as an office holder of the International Molders' Union of North America.

The government clerks' organization formed four months ago, is known as the Federal Employees' Union and is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. It already has between 5000 and 6000 members.

THE NEW YORK STRIKE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The failure of Mayor Mitchel and the Public Service Commission today to induce street railway officials to arbitrate differences with their employees in this city tonight still left the fate of the transit strike now in its sixth day. Suspension of traffic on all surface car lines in Manhattan and the Bronx at night and infrequent cars during the day has packed subway and elevated lines and caused great inconvenience to the traveling public.

Mayor Mitchel said late today that something would have to be done and that he hoped to devise some means by which all cars could run again. The Mayor's plan to have the board of estimate grant a franchise to the New York Motor Bus Company, permitting omnibus traffic throughout the city, did not give much hope tonight, as it takes thirty days for the franchise to be granted and to put busses in operation.

Gompers and other labor leaders will address a mass meeting tomorrow after a parade of the striking car men, who will march to refute the assertion of railway officials that the number of men union leaders declare are on strike is exaggerated.

OWNERSHIP OF RAILWAYS.

Government Investigation of the Subject is Scheduled.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Chicago will be the seat of a thorough investigation of government ownership and control of railroads, telegraph lines, express companies, river and ocean transportation and other public utilities beginning November 20, Senator Newlands of Nevada announced in an address before the Chicago Chamber of Commerce today. The investigation, Newlands said, will be conducted by the joint subcommittee composed of the Interstate Commerce committees of the House and Senate, of which Newlands is chairman. Newlands said the investigation would be conducted in accordance with President Wilson's recommendations to Congress.

FOR UPLIFT IN MEXICO.

Future Life of Nation Discussed.

Suggestions for a Permanent Peace are Submitted by Maj.-Gen. Bliss.

Joint Commission Listens to Defense of Carranza's Mining Edicts.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW LONDON (Ct.) Sept. 13.—Suggestions as to what methods shall be employed to establish peace on the Mexican border were submitted today to Maj.-Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, U.S.A., by the American members of the American-Mexican joint commission. The officer's opinions were sought on subjects ranging from the withdrawal of American troops from Mexico to the possibility of creating an international police to guard the border. No conclusion, however, was reached and the commissioners will continue their conferences with Gen. Bliss tomorrow.

The joint commission today dealt wholly with questions raised by taxation decrees issued by Gen. Carranza which affect American-controlled mining properties in Mexico. An exhaustive study of the situation was begun. The Mexican commissioners explained in detail the purposes of the decrees, insisting that they were designed to promote the mining industry, not to drive out American capital and confiscate its holdings.

FOR BORDER PATROL.

In their conference with Gen. Bliss, the American commissioners took under consideration the advisability of proposing such a system of border patrol that a part of the Mexican troops now engaged in this duty would be released for the pursuit of bandits at a distance from the line. They considered also the attitude of Americans living along the border, as reported by Gen. Bliss and obtained from that officer estimates as to the number of soldiers necessary to put into effect any of the plans suggested. Discussing the wider aspects of the commission's work, Secretary Lane said today it was probably unique in the history of international bodies in that it was going into all that concerns the life of a nation; its economic problems; its political struggles, and every phase of government.

It was possible, he said, that no conclusions would be reached as to many of the things discussed. He added, however, that the Mexicans would have knowledge of the views held in the United States as a result of the deliberations, while the American commissioners were gleaning a wide knowledge of conditions below the border.

Even the international responsibilities of Mexico were being talked over, Mr. Lane said, and it was necessary that all these things should be considered in order that an enduring government should be set up in the distressed republic.

Complaints of American mining interests in Mexico led to the present investigation. In explaining the decrees complained of, the Mexican commissioners pointed out that one of the aims of the Carranza government was to prevent speculative and unproductive monopolization of mining lands. The Carranza government, it was said, virtually has reversed the system in operation during the Diaz regime.

Under the Diaz plan the rate of taxation on mining claims diminished in direct ratio to the number of claims, whereas under the Carranza plan the purpose is to encourage the staking of relatively small number of claims which actually will be operated, and to discourage the holding of large tracts of mining land simply for speculative purposes.

OTHER COMPLAINTS.

Another series of complaints had to do with the attempt of the Carranza government to compel merchants and corporations to accept paper currency at a rate far in excess of its current value. The attention of the Mexican commissioners was directed to instances in which military commanders had, through decrees, threatened with death any person who refused to accept paper currency at its par value, and for a similar offense also had threatened merchants with the confiscation of their property.

The Mexican commissioners pointed out that in so vast a country it was humanly impossible to guard against all possible abuses, but they laid emphasis on the fact that while such extreme decrees had been issued by subordinate military commanders, the national government has constantly urged moderation on the State governors and that they had no record of a single instance in which any of these extreme penalties had been inflicted.

BUILDING COLLAPSES; SHOPPERS ESCAPE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

TOLEDO (O.) Sept. 13. — More than 100 persons narrowly missed death tonight when a four-story brick building on Summit street, the city's main thoroughfare, collapsed with but little warning and tumbled into the street crowded with shoppers and theater-goers. The crash was heard for several blocks.

Police three hours later, after workmen had searched the debris, stated that no one was killed and none seriously hurt. Some were slightly cut by flying glass. The building was being remodeled for a Cleveland clothing company and was weakened by the removal of a support earlier in the day, it is said.

BRUSSELS PEOPLE AGAIN PENALIZED.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Sept. 14.—Because it is alleged the people of Brussels signalled to a British aviator who flew over the city last week, says the Exchange Telegraph's Amsterdam correspondent, the German authorities have ordered all the inhabitants to be in their homes before 7 o'clock and all cafes within a certain area closed.

COMMENT ON THE SITUATION.

Rumania entered the war to help the allies. Now the Rumanians are crying to the allies for help. Thus it is that even in war things go by contraries. The London Times fears that Rumania is about to suffer the fate of Serbia. Hindenburg may be placed in complete command of the whole war situation by the Kaiser. The British see in this move a harbinger of early peace. A German dispatch insinuates, however, that the Germans may sacrifice their campaign in some one place to concentrate on another.

The conference of the American and Mexican joint high commissioners at New London, Ct., has already reached the psychological stage. They are discussing an idealistic peace and an uplift for Mexico. Meanwhile banditry continues in Mexico. Villa is still at large, though thousands of Carranza and American troops are supposed to be on his trail. Things also go by contraries in Mexico.

EXPECTATIONS OF PEACE.

Hindenburg may be Given the Chief Command to Act When Time Comes.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Sept. 13. — The council of the central powers now being held at the German headquarters on the east front may decide to concentrate all commands under Hindenburg, according to advices received here today. Such a step British observers said undoubtedly would bring peace nearer, as Hindenburg, holding the confidence of the German people could do much more when the time for negotiations came if he were supreme commander for Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey.

Prussian Newspapers are Said to Attach Utmost Importance to the Conference now Being Held at the Kaiser's Eastern Headquarters.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 14 (via London, 2:49 a.m.)—German newspapers attach profound importance to the conference now taking place at German eastern headquarters. Those in attendance include the German Emperor, the Imperial Chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the Chief of Staff, Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, and the first quartermaster-general, Von Ludendorf, representing Germany; Archduke Charles, representing Austria-Hungary; King Ferdinand and the crown prince, representing Bulgaria, and Enver Pasha, Turkish Minister of War.

The Frankfurter Zeitung intimates that the fate of the near east is being decided and closes with an enthusiastic tribute to Enver Pasha, who, it asserts, is endowed with Napoleonic genius.

Dutch papers suggest that the conference is considering new and drastic strategical changes, in the nature of sacrifices, on one or both fighting fronts.

TRADE COMMISSION ADVISES MERCHANTS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

COLUMBUS (O.) Sept. 13.—Establishment of cost systems by manufacturers was regarded as one of the most important means of strengthening American industry to meet European competition after the war by Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, in an address before the Ohio Bankers' Association here today.

The trade commission has prepared pamphlets describing fundamentals of cost accounting and is prepared to send experts to assist trade associations in adopting some sound system, Mr. Hurley explained.

Comparing British and American banking systems, Mr. Hurley said: "The total capital and reserves of the fifty-seven British overseas banks, loan and trust companies have a capital and surplus of $3,400,000,000 which equals that of all the domestic banks of all the rest of the world combined; the capital and surplus represented by our overseas banking is less than $7,000,000. We are permitting our commercial rivals to do our foreign banking for us and to obtain the profits and commercial advantages that naturally result."

POUNDED TO DEATH BY AN ELEPHANT.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

KINGSPORT (Tenn.) Sept. 13.—Walter Eldridge, 23 years old, was pounded to death against the ground by an elephant, of which he was trainer, before thousands of persons, at a circus here yesterday. The elephant, which Eldridge was leading to water, became infuriated and, seizing the trainer in his trunk, began pounding him furiously against the ground and ended his life by stamping him. The crowd of spectators became excited and a general stampede ensued, several women fainting. Shots fired into the animal's body only increased his fury.

The animal was gotten under control only after his regular trainer arrived.

ENOUGH OF STRIKE, I.W.W. WOULD WORK.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CROSBY (Minn.) Sept. 13.—After having lost several weeks work, "watched their families and themselves hovering on the brink of starvation with nothing between them and one of Northern Minnesota's winters," they said, about 200 members of the Industrial Workers of the World, which organization called a strike of iron miners on the Cuyuna Range, today voted to call off the strike. Whether the mine operators will accept the men back is not known. Although the miners are claimed to be working full strength, one mining official expressed the belief that places would be found for all men who would "renounce the I.W.W."

At no time did the Cuyuna Range men make any demands, but went out in sympathy with the Mesaba Range strikers.

Where the Nation's Business is Conducted.

"Capitol" at Asbury Park,

With President Wilson sojourning at Long Branch, in his summer home at Shadow Lawn, most of the affairs of the great republic of the United States are carried on at the national bank building at Asbury Park, shown in the picture given above, but six miles distant from Shadow Lawn. It is said the President and his White House staff will remain there until after election. The President left recently for New London, Ct., to visit the bedside of his sick sister, but returned to New Jersey as her condition was such she could not recognise him.

On Deck.

WILSON WILL ATTEND TO BUSINESS TODAY.

President Returns from Bedside of His Sick Sister and Finds Many Political Engagements Requested, but will Accept None for the Present—Maine Election Still a Worry.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LONG BRANCH (N. J.) Sept. 13. —President Wilson returned here today from the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Annie E. Howe, critically ill at New London, Ct.

The President found requests for engagements from many political leaders, but he arranged for none. He has been informed that Mrs. Howe can hardly live another week and is holding himself ready to return to New London.

Plans for the President to speak in St. Louis September 20 and in Baltimore September 24 and to go to El Paso, Tex., to open a dam early in October, are being held in abeyance pending the outcome of Mrs. Howe's illness.

There were evidences here today that the Republican victory in Maine had led Democratic leaders to work more diligently in other parts of the country. Administration officials here said they expected no other result, but it is plain they realize they have work ahead of them. Encouraging reports from Oregon, Washington and California reached the executive offices today. Further optimism came with the receipt of a report from a finance committee of the national committee that from $5000 to $8000 a day is being received in small contributions.

The President is to visit the executive offices at Asbury Park for the first time tomorrow to attend to an accumulation of official business. Commissions and other papers await his signature.

MRS. HOWE WORSE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) Sept. 13.—Mrs. Annie E. Howe, President Wilson's sister, who is critically ill here, is losing strength, her physicians announced tonight. A bulletin issued at 9 o'clock said:

"Mrs. Howe has been comfortable throughout the day. There is a perceptible loss in strength tonight."

The Great War.

FRENCH FORGE AHEAD NEAR COMBLES VILLAGE.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Sept. 14, 3:08 a.m. —The British forces, which crossed the Struma River in Greek Macedonia last Sunday, have been withdrawn after having inflicted heavy losses on the Bulgars, according to a report sent by the British press representative at Saloniki.

PARIS, Sept. 13, 11 p.m.—North of the Somme the French enlarged their positions opposite Combles and stormed new trenches south of Le Pries farm, says tonight's War Office statement. The Germans recaptured a farm in l'Abbe wood and Hill 76. But both were retaken by the French, who maintained all their gains on the center and right. The total captures of yesterday and today were 2300 prisoners, ten guns and forty machine guns.

The statement reads:

"North of the Somme we extended our positions facing Combles and took, south of Le Pries farm, a powerfully organized trench system. Desperate fighting occurred on our center and right wing, where Germans made energetic efforts to recapture lost ground. One violent enemy attack against l'Abbe wood farm succeeded at first in its recapture, but our troops threw the enemy back from his position, which we now occupy completely.

"Hill 76, on the south, was also the object of enemy attempts, but after a series of hand-to-hand encounters, with fluctuating fortunes, our infantry maintained all its gains.

"The number of unwounded prisoners captured yesterday and today exceed 2300. Important booty abandoned by the enemy and counted up to the present amounts to ten guns, including several heavy pieces and about forty machine guns in the Bouchavesnes sector alone.

"Artillery fighting continued actively in the region of Vermandovillers and Chaulnes.

"On the right of the Meuse Germans attacked the positions we recently carried east of Fleury. They were completely repulsed."

GERMAN ADMISSIONS.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sept. 13 (via Sayville.) —The capture by the French of Bouchavesnes, on the Somme front, is admitted in the official announcement from the War Office today. The statement follows:

"Front of the German Crown Prince: East of the Meuse (Verdun front) attacks made by the French in the sector of Thiaumont and Souville failed, causing them sanguinary losses."

PAGE HAS RETURNED FROM WAR VISIT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

UDINE (Italy) Sept. 13.—Thomas Nelson Page, the American Ambassador, arrived here today from his visit to the Austro-Italian front. He was accompanied by Capt. Elvin R. Heiberg, military attache, and Lieutenant-Commander Charles Russel Train, naval attche, of the Embassy. They were received by both the military and civil authorities and will be guests of the supreme commander of the Italian army while they remain for about a week at the front.

GOV. SANDERS WINS IN LOUISIANA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 13.—Unofficial, but nearly complete returns from yesterday's Democratic primary indicated today that former Gov. Jared Y. Sanders was nominated to succeed Representative Lewis Morgan from the Sixth District by a majority of about 1000 votes.

In the Seventh District, where there was a three-cornered fight, Representative L. Lazaro appeared to have defeated his two opponents, Edwards and Barbe, by a small plurality. A second primary may be necessary.

FORCES UNDER CADORNA COMMAND TRAVENANZES.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ROME, Sept. 13 (via London, 5:44 p.m.)—Italian troops in the Dolomite Alps on the far northerly line of the Austro-Italian front have captured a position commanding Travenanzes Pass and cutting Austria's communications between the Travenanzes Valley and the Lagazuoi region, the War Office announced today. The official statement follows:

"Minor offensive actions continue in the Area and upper Posina Valleys. On Monday evening we repulsed attacks east of Grisc and in the Zara Valley.

"North of Falzarego our Alpine troops gained possession of a position which not only commands the Travenanzes pass but also interrupts enemy communications between the Travenanses Valley and the Lagazuoi district.

"Last evening enemy aircraft bombarded Venice, Pardenone, Latisana, Marano, Cervignano and Aquileia, wounding a few civilians and doing slight damage."

Italian troops in Macedonia have driven back Bulgarian detachments near Lake Butkova, the War Office announced today. The statement says:

"Saloniki front: On Monday and Tuesday in the district west of Butkovo Lake our columns had skirmishes with Bulgarian detachments which were driven in beyond the Demir-Hissar-Doiran railway line."

GEN. PFLANZER-BALTIN QUITS BATTLE FRONT.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sept. 13 (via Sayville.) —In accepting the resignation of Gen. Pflanzer-Baltin, says an Overseas News Agency announcement, Emperor Francis Joseph sent a letter in his own handwriting thanking the general for the services he had rendered. The letter expresses regret that the general's ill-health makes it impossible for him to retain his commission.

BIG VOTE INDICATED

Lowden and Dunne Nominated.

Plurality for the Republicans in Illinois may Exceed All Expectations.

Miles Poindexter Wins G.O.P. Senatorial Nomination in Washington State.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Sweeping victories for Gov. Edward F. Dunne, Democrat, and former Congressman Frank O. Lowden, Republican, for their respective parties' nomination for Governor; the apparent defeat of former Senator William Lorimer for a Republican Congressional nomination, and several close fights for Congressmen characterized the Illinois primary today.

Returns at midnight indicated the nomination of Gov. Dunne by a plurality over William B. Brinton that might reach 150,000. With three-fourths of Cook county in, Dunne had a plurality of 43,000 in Cook county. He was running 2 to 1 over Brinton down-State. Lowden's plurality over Morton D. Hull of Chicago in the Republican fight was almost as large. He had about 20,000 more than Hull in Cook county and claimed he would win down State by 100,000.

ON FACE OF RETURNS.

On the face of incomplete returns from the Sixth Congress District, Lorimer had been defeated by about 1000 votes by Arthur W. Fulton. Shortly before midnight the election commissioners received a report of trouble at one of the precincts in this district, in the Eighteenth Ward, Lorimer's former stronghold, where, it was said, certain of the ballots are to be recounted. Detectives were sent to the place. Lorimer, earlier in the evening, announced his own incomplete returns showed the vote decidedly close.

Medill McCormack, former Progressive, was leading the Republican candidates for Congressman-at-large, with former Senator William E. Mason second and R. M. Chipperfield, incumbent, a close third.

Nomination of Congressman James Mann, Republican House leader, by a big plurality over the Rev. Melbourne P. Boynton, a minister, and the apparent defeat of Congressman James T. McDermott, Democrat, by Alderman Charles Martin were features of Chicago Congressional primaries.

Martin B. Madden, Republican Congressman from the First District, has been nominated again by a safe majority as has George Edmund Foss, Republican, in the Tenth District. Congressman W. W. Wilson, Republican, has won nomination in the Third District.

About 210,000 men and approximately 60,000 women voted in Chicago, it was estimated. This was approximately one-third of the total vote. There were few disturbances at the polls, although several arrests were made.

ELECTION RESULTS IN WASHINGTON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Sept. 13.—United States Senator Miles Poindexter, who was elected as a Republican six years ago, and who joined the Progressive party four years ago, was renominated as the Republican candidate for Senator in yesterday's primary election, defeating Will E. Humphrey, now Representative in Congress from the First District, by a plurality of first choice votes estimated at 7000.

Henry McBride of Seattle, who was Governor of the State from 1901 to 1905, was nominated as the Republican candidate for Governor. McBride was a leader of the Progressive party four years ago.

Lieut.-Gov. Louis F. Hart, Republican, appears to have been renominated, and Mrs. Josephine C. Preston, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, also seems to have been successful.

The Democratic vote was small, owing to lack of contests. George Turner, former United States Senator, appears to have been nominated for Senator over Robert Bridges. Ernest Lister, the present State executive, was renominated for Governor.

The returns assure the nomination for Congress of the following:

Republicans: John F. Miller, Representative Lindley H. Hadley, Representative Albert Johnson, W. L. LaFollette. Tom Corkery of Spokane is leading in his contest.

Democrats: George F. Cotterill, Mrs. Frances C. Axtell, G. P. Fishburne, C. W. Masterson, Representative C. C. Dill.

INCREASED LEAD FOR GOV. CARLSON.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DENVER (Colo.) Sept. 13.—Returns coming in slowly from Tuesday's State-wide primary in Colorado early tonight increased the lead of Gov. George A. Carlson over Samuel D. Nicholson for the gubernatorial nomination on the Republican ticket. Nicholson's lead of 2170 in Denver, had been wiped out, but out-State returns showed that Carlson was leading by 5432 in outside counties.

Benjamin C. Hilliard, Democrat, was renominated for Congress from the First District.

Horrible Cruelties Against the Defenseless Perpetrated by Rumanians, Slavs and Serbs

Barbarism.

MERCILESS CONDUCT DESCRIBED BY BERLIN.

Paragraphs by Wireless not Contained in the London Cabled Report.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

[The wireless version of the Bulgarian official of September 11 contains the following in addition to the statement as cabled via London.—Ed.]

BERLIN, Sept. 13 (by wireless to Sayville.)—The official Bulgarian statement of September 11 says ten cannon were taken by the Bulgarians at Fort Arabtabia, and continues:

"The retreat of the Rumanians, Russians and Serbians was accompanied by the most horrible cruelties, especially on the part of the Rumanians, against the defenseless population. A report from the commander-in-chief, dated September 10, says:

"'Since the first day after the crossing of the frontier it has been established that the Rumanian army has committed a series of inhuman atrocities which more and more prove to have been incredibly bestial. Some days before the declaration of war the Rumanian authorities took all cattle without formal requisition. When the Rumanians retreated they formed special detachments for the burning of Bulgarian villages. The villages of Ciskioy, Aitomorove and Screbarna and others in the vicinity of Turtukai and Silistria are still burning. One detachment defeated near Sansalar, September 7, sent a company with two officers to the village of Screbarna. All the male inhabitants were assassinated during the night. The streets were filled with the bodies of innocent persons mutilated in the most horrible fashion. A number of children were burned in locked houses. The women and the remaining children were carried to Silistria.

"'On September 9 the men of Allfak were taken to the bank of the Danube and killed mercilessly. Their bodies were thrown into the river. Inhabitants of the villages of Kallpetrovo, Aitmir, Cradmur and Dabuk were transported to the west bank near Kalarash in order to protect the cowardly enemy from our fire.'

"On September 10, south of Lake Ostrovo (Macedonian front,) infantry fighting was continued from the previous day. Zouaves who attempted to cross the Struma near Nevolyen and Kardinoe were driven back with heavy losses to the west bank by our counter-attack.

"At the mouth of the Struma several British companies, assisted by artillery on the west bank and by warships, attempted to advance toward the east. They were taken under fire by our artillery and attacked and driven back to their original positions. Two enemy battalions who assisted them were dispersed by our fire.

RUSSIAN METHODS.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sept. 13 (via Sayville.)—"Russian methods of warfare are described by several eyewitnesses," says the Overseas News Agency. "An Austrian sergeant-major who escaped from the Russians reports that soldiers of the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Siberian Rifles told him three German infantrymen who were captured were taken behind the lines and stabbed on command of Russian officers. The noncommissioned officer of the Cossacks said a Russian order had been issued to kill prisoners.

"Three Russian soldiers of the Fifth Turkoman Rifles, who are now prisoners, say the commander of their company repeatedly ordered them not to take Germans prisoners, but to kill them. A special order issued during August says:

"'Comrades, when we attack everyone shall keep in mind that Austrians may be taken prisoners, but that Germans, as far as possible, shall be killed.'"

London "Times" Comment.

RUMANIA MAY SHARE THE FATE OF SERBIA.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Times military correspondent discusses today the probable strategy of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, the new German Chief of Staff, under the caption "Rumania's danger."

The writer expresses the belief that the German leader will adopt a defensive policy in the west and gather an important army for an attack on Rumania in an effort to repeat Germany's performance against Serbia.

"We allies," he says, "must in this case come to the aid of Rumania with all our might. This does not mean that we should allow our strategy to be deflected, but rather that the settled plan of the allies should be pursued with increasing energy and determination. To fly about the world to any point where Von Hindenburg is beyond us is an act of folly. The best means of helping Rumania is by continuing on all fronts our general attack with increasing means and increasing obstinacy. Our main efforts must be on the principal fronts, where our main armies stand."

Work of Aeroplanes.

A RUSSIAN DESTROYER SUNK BY THE GERMANS.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sept. 13 (via Sayville.)—A Russian destroyer has been sunk in the Gulf of Riga by a German aeroplane squadron, says a report given out by the German Admiralty today. German naval planes also have attacked Russian sea forces in the Black Sea.

The Admiralty statement reads:

"German seaplanes have attacked Russian sea forces off Constanza and the coast to the south. All the seaplanes returned unharmed. Hits on one battleship, one submarine and several destroyers were observed.

"On the evening of September 12 several German naval aeroplanes attacked the enemy's sea force in the Gulf of Riga. Several hits were obtained, and one enemy destroyer sank immediately. Despite heavy shelling all the aeroplanes returned safely."

Fighting.

RUSSIANS ARE HOLDING GROUND IN CARPATHIANS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PETROGRAD, Sept. 13 (via London.)—The Russians are holding the ground won in the recent fighting in the Carpathians despite heavy counter-attacks, according to today's War Office statement, which says:

"In the region of Riga and on the River Dvina the activity of the enemy's air fleet increased.

"In the region south of Jesupol (in Galicia, ten miles south of Halics) enemy attempts to cross the River Bystritza were frustrated by our fire.

"In the wooded Carpathian region, along the upper course of the River Charpy-Cheremosh, the enemy launched unsuccessful attacks on the heights captured by us.

"In the Baltic, on the evening of September 9, our fleet successfully bombarded enemy trawlers in the Irben straits. Some of them were compelled to run ashore."

THE LOS ANGELES ADVERTISING SCORE.

In printing the advertising records of all the daily and Sunday newspapers in Los Angeles every day, The Times does not attempt to mislead or deceive its readers by using figures that concern only certain kinds of advertising. It boldly publishes the figures of all classes of advertising printed in each local newspaper.

The juggling of figures is left to those newspapers that dare not tell the whole truth and that have not the courage or fairness to make honest comparisons.

For the week ending Sunday, September 10, the Los Angeles newspapers published the following number of lines of advertising (300 agate lines make one column):

NEW FRENCH FARCE A GREAT SUCCESS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PARIS, Sept. 13.—"Madame Et Son Filleul," the first new play of the season, was produced this evening at the Palais Royal and scored a success equaling the triumphs of "The Petit Cafe" and "Madame La Presidente," two of the most phenomenal successes of the Palais Royal in recent years.

It is the work of three masters of vaudeville—Pierre Veber, Maurice Hennequin and Henry de Gorse. The subject is so ample that even three acts scarcely suffice to disentangle its complications.

A "Poilu" on furlough arrives unexpectedly to see his war godmother, whose husband is the usual quantite negligeable. Circumstances compel the "Poilu" to pass as the husband and the husband to pass as the "Poilu."

The situations that ensue are screamingly funny. The representation was remarkable. Never was a good piece better played.

LIGHT SKIRMISHES IN THE BALKANS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BUCHAREST, Sept. 13 (via London, Sept. 14.)—The War Office today issued the following official communication:

"There have been light skirmishes on the whole of the northwest fronts. We took 378 prisoners.

"On the south front there has been an exchange of gunfire all along the Danube, while in Dobrudja we are in contact with the enemy on the entire front, with lively engagements between patrols and advance guards.

"A detachment of the enemy which had advanced up the Danube was counter-attacked and repulsed, leaving in our hands eight German guns."

DEMANDS HIS PAY FOR MORSE PARDON.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 13.—Max C. Baum, a real estate broker, who claims credit for the pardon of Charles W. Morse, the financier, from the Federal Prison at Atlanta, by President Taft, has brought suit against Morse for $100,000 for his services.

Mrs. Clementine G. Morse, wife of Morse, also will be a defendant as soon as she can be served, for it was she, according to Baum, who retained him for the work in behalf of her husband. Morse subsequently confirmed the retention of Baum at numerous conferences and in letters. Since the financier was released from Atlanta, in January, 1912, Baum has been unable to see him, and the promise that Baum was to be made wealthy "beyond his wildest dreams," in case he succeeded, has not been fulfilled. The only token of appreciation for his services through four years, besides letters of thanks, says Baum, was a fine bunch of American Beauties which Mr. and Mrs. Morse sent Mrs. Baum soon after Morse was pardoned.

NEW DIVORCE CANON.

Will be Recommended to Convention of Protestant Episcopal Church.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Marriage between parties divorced for any cause, either of whom has a husband or wife living, will not be permitted hereafter in the Protestant Episcopal Church, if a new canon, recommended by the commission on marriage and divorce, is adopted by the general convention of the church at St. Louis, October 11, according to an announcement today.

The commission is composed of five bishops, five priests and five laymen.

"The proposed legislation does not affect cases where the marriage relation is annulled by the courts for causes arising before marriage. The difficult question as to whether divorced persons who have remarried by the civil authority or by a clergyman of some other church still shall be admitted to holy communion is to be referred by the parish priest to the bishop of diocese and his decision is to be final."

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Sept. 13.—The cruiser New Orleans left the Puget Sound navy yard tonight for Astoria, Or., to tow to the yard the old cruiser Boston, which is to be stripped and sold, being of no further value as a naval vessel. It is expected she will bring a good price for conversion into a merchant ship.

The Boston was built in 1883 and saw service with Dewey's fleet at the battle of Manila Bay.

AMERICAN AMBASSADOR IS AGAIN UNDER FIRE.

Section of the German Press Shows Hostility to Wilson's Diplomat in Berlin Because of a Certain Remark Attributed to the Minister—His Criticism of "Ruthless" U-boat Warfare Offends Prussians.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sept. 13 (via London, 10:55 p.m.)—The American Ambassador, James W. Gerard, again is under fire in a section of the German press, this time for a remark attributed to him regarding a speech made recently by Dr. Gustav Stresemann, National Liberal member of the Reichstag, advocating, among other things, a resumption of the submarine warfare.

Ambassador Gerard is quoted as saying that he did not understand how the representatives of districts for which export to America was a vital question could advocate ruthless submarine warfare. The National Liberal press agency, in a communication to the newspaper takes the Ambassador to task for what is termed "unwarranted intervention in a purely German question", and says that the Ambassador's remark is characterized by "that naive presumptuousness which believes that the decision affecting Germany's political future will be dictated by German's American export interests."

The paper declared that Ambassador Gerard would do better to leave to the responsible German authorities the decision on what use is to be made of the means at their command against England, and adds:

"The art and manner in which Ambassador Gerard—and not for the first time—looks after British interests is extremely characteristic of his general attitude."

The American Ambassador in reply says he never heard of Dr. Stresemann's speech and certainly never made any public utterance of the nature attributed to him. His attitude on the submarine issue, he declares, is based on pro-American not pro-British motives.

Separation.

MODJESKA IS CHARGED WITH BREAKING UP HOME.

Chicago Man Declares His Wife was Won Away from Him by Grandson of Noted Actress, and Says He is Through with Her Forever—Will File Suit for Divorce, He Insists.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 13.—Frank Dorpols, whose wife Dorothy is now with Felix Modjeska in California, declares he is through with her forever. Two weeks ago, he says, he sent his wife away to learn her own mind. Dorpols says his wife met Modjeska at tea dances at the Stratford Hotel. Later there was a heart-to-heart talk during which Mrs. Dorpols said that "perhaps she wanted to go."

Dorpols said he let her go as an experiment, but in view of her recent interviews, he says, everything is now over between them.

"I am going to file a suit immediately," said the husband today. He said he did not know on what grounds he would ask the separation. "I only know," he said, "that my plan of sending her away has failed. She doesn't want to come back."

When the Dorpols story was first printed the husband said he did not know who the man in the case was. But today he declared that it was Felix Modjeska who had won his wife away from him.

"Yes, my wife is visiting Modjeska at East Newport, Cal.," he continued. "She—my wife—has not written me a line. I must go it alone now. She took everything she owned away with her, even her pictures."

Mrs. Lelice Modjeska, mother of Felix, whose own romance came to a tragic end when she secured a separation from her husband, Ralph Modjeska, an engineer and son of the famous Polish actress, is now living in a Polish convent here.

"I can't understand it," said Mrs. Modjeska, in commenting on her son's domestic mix-up. "My son is married happily and has three children. There must be some mistake."

Mrs. Modjeska said she never had heard of the Dorpols woman until she read the story in the papers.

Misfortune seems to trail the Modjeska family. Ralph Modjeska, father of Felix, whose domestic tragedy filled the columns in the newspapers only a few months ago, was one of the engineers and architects for the great Canadian bridge that toppled into the St. Lawrence River a few days ago, carrying with it a number of lives, $6,000,000 of property which cannot be salvaged and the work of a great number of high-priced men for the last six years.

MORE BOMBS DROPPED IN VENICE ATTACK.

The church of San Giovanni Paolo, the Home for the Aged and several private buildings were slightly damaged. There were no casualties.

Bombs also were dropped on Chioggia, starting fires, which were quickly extinguished.

SUGAR PRICES TO GO UP AGAIN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—The joy in the realms of domestic economy caused by the announcement on September 6 that refined sugar had been cut in price 75 cents a hundred was dimmed today by the announcement of a country-wide advance of 15 cents a hundred.

Heavy trading in raw sugar at New York was given as the reason for the raise. Refined sugar, it was declared, is now $1.40 per hundred pounds more than on the first of this year.

WAR AND ANIMALS.

Nearly Ten Thousand Men Caring for Wounded Horses.

[Chicago Tribune:] A large and not unimportant group of our people are particularly sensitive to the welfare and happiness of our domestic animals, particularly horses. Visions of the long lines of wounded men make an impression upon these people, but their preoccupation seems to be with the sufferings of the beasts of burden, both in peace and war.

The English military authorities have undertaken the problems of the horse scientifically chiefly through the efforts of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Although most of the hauling is now done by motor, there are large numbers of horses in the armies. A corps of almost 10,000 men is taking care of wounded horses in three military hospitals. According to James Muirhead, writing in the Nation, some weeks ago, more than 81,000 horses had been treated, of which about 47,000 have been returned to duty, 23,000 were still under treatment and about 9000 had died or been killed.

Perhaps the horses have the better time of it after all. With them there will be no blind and crippled after the war. There will be no defectives born of shaken nerves and deformed bodies. If we allow ourselves to be too rational we may almost suspect that humans run everything with perfect competency except their own affairs.

FURTHER GAINS FOR BULGARS.

Their Advance in Dobrudja is Still in Progress.

Repulse of the Rumanians in Carpathians Reported.

Few Prisoners Taken in the Capture of Silistria.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sept. 13 (via Sayville.)—The Bulgarian army, which is invading Eastern Rumania, has made further gains, says the official announcement issued yesterday at Sofia, which follows:

"Our troops are continuing to advance in Dobrudja.

"On the Macedonia front, near Ostrovo Lake, there was activity by patrols, as well as artillery fighting.

"Two Italian companies with machine guns and one squadron of cavalry advanced in the direction of Butkova (near the Struma River) and Douma. We made a counter-attack and dispersed them. Thirty Italians were captured. This was our first encounter with Italian troops.

"In an encounter in the Struma Valley, near Nevoylen and Kardsiko, on September 10, the enemy lost seven officers and about 100 men killed. We captured many rifles and a quantity of ammunition. We took prisoner two Scotch officers and more than 100 British soldiers.

"A hostile fleet is cruising off the Aegean coast. Our hydroplanes made a successful attack on enemy warships in the harbor of Kavala."

RUMANIANS REPULSED.

The repulse of Rumanian attacks on a long front in the Carpathians is announced by the War Office today. In Transylvania German troops have been brought up to fight the Rumanians. The announcement follows:

"Russian attacks north of Dvetnemouth and near Garbunovka were repulsed.

"In the Carpathians the Russians made a simultaneous attack along the whole front between Smotyrich and the Golden Bystritza. They were repulsed.

The boat was sunk by Bulgarian artillery and the general was drowned.

LONDON ON SILISTRIA.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Sept. 13, 6:39 p.m.—The Bulgarian troops, which took the Danube fortress of Silistria, in Rumania, capture of which was announced by the German War Office Sunday, apparently did not take prisoner any considerable number of Rumanians. The official Bulgarian statement of September 11, received here today, says the Rumanians retired "on both sides of the Danube, pursued by our cavalry" (although this translation of the Bulgarian statement, if taken literally, indicates that the Bulgarians have forced a passage of the Danube, it is improbable that the Bulgarian War Office meant to convey this meaning. The Bulgarian report of the following day makes no mention of any such operation.)

The statement follows:

"Along the Danube there was artillery firing at Tekia, Vidin, Lomorjechove and Ivichton.

"In Dobrudja our offensive continues. Yesterday our troops entered Silistria, being welcomed enthusiastically by the population. The Bulgarian tri-color now floats over Fort Arabtabia (probably Fort Arabadsilar, near the Danube, half way between Silistria and Turtukai.) We captured artillery and a large quantity of material. The enemy troops retired northeastward and on both banks of the Danube, pursued by our cavalry."

REACHES SWITZERLAND AFTER FOUR TRIALS.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sept. 13 (via Sayville.)—Dr. Krum Heller, a Mexican diplomatist, with proper credentials, was compelled by the British to cross the Atlantic three times before proceeding to Switzerland, according to the Overseas News Agency. Dr. Heller, who holds a colonel's commission in the Constitutionalist army, was sent by Gen. Carranza, the news agency says, to express Mexico's thanks for Switzerland's recognition of the Carranza government. He is quoted as having said to a representative of the Tageblatt at Berne, Switzerland, that he started from New York four months ago, having obtained from the American government a certificate of identity in addition to his Mexican papers. According to this account, a British agent attempted to search Dr. Heller's baggage on the steamer in New York harbor and on being prevented tore the seal on Dr. Heller's letter from the American government. The steamer was taken to the Orkneys, where Dr. Heller is said to have been detained several weeks, it being represented that he was carrying messages from the United States to Germany. He was then sent to Scotland Yard, the news agency says, and finally back to New York, whence he proceeded to Switzerland by way of Spain and France.

Discussing the tour just ended, the candidate said:

GEORGIA NOMINATES FRANK PROSECUTOR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ATLANTA (Ga.) Sept. 13.—Georgia again gave answer why the northern and eastern critics of the lynching of Leo M. Frank, by nominating Hugh M. Dorsey, who prosecuted Frank, for Governor. The answer was made more complete by an unusually large plurality. Nat E. Harris, a popular man who, under ordinary circumstances would probably have won the nomination, ran second. The Frank name is something to conjure with in Georgia, as the family is powerful in society and business. The Frank case was the cause of Tom Watson's rise to fame. It was under the surface, but Watson, Hardman and Joseph R. Parks, who also candidates, but their strength was not formidable. There were intimations that considerable "Yankee" money, chiefly from New York, had been sent in to encompass the defeat of Dorsey, but there is no positive proof of this and if the money was sent in it had no effect upon the election unless it increased the determination to nominate Dorsey. The nomination is equivalent to an election, the latter is a mere formality. Many hot speeches were delivered during the campaign and although the Frank case was not mentioned by name, stress was laid upon the courage and ability displayed by Dorsey in upholding Georgia's claim that it protects its women and punishes those who wrong them, regardless of position, race, wealth, color or influence. This argument proved irresistible to the Georgia people.

ARMOR PLANT SITES OFFERED.

Alabama Delegation Making Strong Bid for Choice.

Daniels Holds Hearings at the Navy Department.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Offers of sites for the projected $11,000,000 government armor-plate plant were made to the Navy Department at hearings here today by more than 40 cities and rural localities in the middle West and the East. Others will be heard tomorrow.

No proposal for sale of private plants was presented, although representatives of the principal armor-plate manufacturers were present. Navy officers said tonight they regarded it unlikely that any plant would be offered for sale and expressed the opinion that the government would begin construction of its own establishment when a satisfactory site had been selected.

Keenest competition was evidenced by spokesmen for the various cities. Large delegations in many instances headed by State officials, Congressmen and presidents of boards of trade and other organizations, appeared to press the claims of New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Birmingham, Savannah, Louisville, Baltimore, St. Louis Brooklyn, Norfolk, Raleigh, Toledo, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Norfolk and many other cities.

The hearings were held in Secretary Daniels's office before the Secretary, Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, Admiral Benson, chief of operations, and members of the general board, upon whom rests the question of selection. Alabama delegations were the first to appear and were followed by those of other States in alphabetical order. Until the hearings recessed tonight Rhode Island cities will be the last considered tomorrow. The Alabamans laid particular emphasis upon the questions of transportation facilities, climatic conditions, character of population, natural resources, cost of living and of production of armor plate at given points. These considerations will play an important part when a final choice is made.

Residents of Bridgehampton Give Him Welcome.

Fairbanks Predicts Victory for G.O.P. Ticket.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BRIDGEHAMPTON (N. Y.) Sept. 13.—Charles E. Hughes arrived at his summer home here tonight for a four days' rest from campaign activities. He will leave New York Monday on his second trip, which will take him through the Middle West.

Residents of Bridgehampton welcomed the Republican nominee at the station. Mr. Hughes went immediately to his summer home. The nominee had a lengthy conference with William R. Willcox, the national chairman, before he left New York.

Discussing the tour just ended, the candidate said:

"We had a most successful trip. Everywhere a great deal of interest has been shown and the cordiality of the people has been very marked. In this respect the situation in Maine is no different from that in other States. I feel there is every reason for confidence."

FAIRBANKS'S PREDICTION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

TULSA (Okla.) Sept. 13.—Charles Warren Fairbanks, Republican candidate for Vice-President, spoke a busy six hours here today and made one public address. Mr. Fairbanks spoke to a large audience here at 11 o'clock this morning. "Victory will surely perch on the banner of Republicanism this fall," he declared.

The Underwood tariff was assailed and the candidate declared that a protective tariff, while always necessary, would be doubly so following the war, when this country must battle for supremacy in the world of business.

Fairbanks left at noon for Enid.

SPEAKS AT ENID.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ENID (Okla.) Sept. 13.—Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican Vice-Presidential candidate, was met here by 8000 people tonight who gave him a rousing welcome. From the depot to the auditorium he was escorted by a band. On the speakers' platform Mr. Fairbanks was introduced by Congressman Dick Morgan.

Mr. Fairbanks appeared to have completely recovered from the effects of an attack of indigestion which interrupted his address in Oklahoma City last night, and to the Reception Committee declared he was in excellent health.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ATLANTA (Ga.) Sept. 13.—Georgia again gave answer today to northern and eastern critics of the lynching of Leo M. Frank, by nominating Hugh M. Dorsey, who prosecuted Frank, for Governor. The answer was made more emphatic by an unusually large plurality. Gen. Nat E. Harris, a popular man, and who, under ordinary circumstances would probably have won the nomination, ran second. The Harris name is something to conjure with in Georgia, as the family is powerful in society and business, but the Frank case was the issue, although it was under the surface. Dr. L. G. Hardman and Joseph E. Pottle were also candidates, but their showing was not formidable. There were insinuations that considerable sums of money, chiefly from New York, had been sent in to encompass the defeat of Dorsey, but there is no tangible proof of this and if the money came in it had no effect upon the result unless it increased the determination to nominate Dorsey. The nomination is equivalent to an election, as the latter is a mere formality. Some hot speeches were delivered during the campaign and although the Frank case was not mentioned by name, stress was laid upon the courage and ability displayed by Dorsey in upholding Georgia's claim that it protects its women and punishes those who wrong them, regardless of position, race, wealth, color or influence. This argument proved irresistible to the Georgia voters.

WILL INVESTIGATE DAIRYMEN COMPLAINT.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Complaints from milk producers in many sections of the country that the cost of production is increasing and their net returns growing smaller will be investigated by the Department of Agriculture. W. J. Spilman of the office of farm management today announced that he would appoint an expert to make a nation-wide inquiry into the cost of producing milk and whether milkmen are justified in asking higher prices. In the opinion of Mr. Spilman scarcity of beef cattle and too much regulation of dairymen by city authorities have increased the cost of milk.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—In spite of rains in many sections during the past week, the weather bureau's crop bulletin issued today says harvesting and threshing of grain progressed rapidly and plowing for fall sowing is beginning in the plains States and eastward.

Conditions were generally favorable for cotton; late potatoes benefitted by showers in northern sections, although the bad effects of unfavorable summer temperatures are showing in the harvesting; good progress was made in haying over most of the country and forage crops are generally improving.

...ITATORS WOULD BAR MILLIONAIRE AS CITIZEN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

...LAND (Or.) Sept. 13.—Charging that S. Benson, millionaire lumberman, is not a fit person to become a citizen of the United States, President Eugene E. Smith of the Central Labor Council has filed with the County Clerk here a protest against his admission to citizenship.

Benson was born in Norway and came to this country in 1868. He applied for his first papers in 1894. The hearing will be held in the County Court tomorrow.

Smith alleges that Benson is a "meddler and dangerous busybody" in local government affairs, and specifically charges that he sought to influence the awarding of a paving contract for the Columbia River highway.

Benson, who is widely known for his public gifts, was named as Oregon's first citizen during the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco, where he was duly honored. But his opponents point out that he was not at that time a citizen at all.

Bandit Chief Reported in Santa Clara Region.

Illinois Officers Accused of Neglecting Duty.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHIHUAHUA CITY (Mex.) Sept. 13.—Constitutional forces under Col. Chapa encountered and routed in the La Guna district a Villista band, which left behind in its flight seven dead and a number of horses, according to reports received here today from Gen. Jose Santos.

The bandits, headed by Eligio Reyes, were attacked near San Pedro Delas Colonias, and the report says they held their ground for nearly four hours. Among the dead was a Villista major. Villa is still in the Santa Clara district, but is carefully avoiding a fight, according to the latest information received here by Gen. Trevino.

FOR A COURT-MARTIAL.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Sept. 13.—A request that Capt. J. H. Walrath and Fred W. Lee, quartermasters respectively of the First and Second Illinois regiments of infantry, be returned here for court-martial was sent to the War Department at Washington by Maj.-Gen. Funston today.

It is charged that they were guilty of neglect of duty in caring for government property by losing some fifty horses and mules valued at about $15,000 belonging to the United States Army.

The lost animals were among others turned over to the two regiments when they came south. Receipts were given by the quartermasters. It is not known what became of the horses and mules.

Gen. Funston said he would prosecute every supply officer in the service guilty of this sort of negligence.

NO TRACE OF VILLA.

Gen. Pershing today sent a message to Gen. Funston here in which he said that no new trades of Francisco Villa had been discovered by either of his patrols or the Carranzistas.

No mention was made of the stationing of American patrols at San Buenaventura and Carmen, but the fact that the American commander and the Carranzistas had exchanged information was taken here to indicate that they were working together to eliminate the bandit.

Gen. Funston said last week Gen. Pershing might co-operate with the de facto government troops against the Villistas.

MORE CONFISCATION.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Sept. 13.—All mining properties in the State of Guanajuato not in operation by October 1 will be confiscated by the Mexican de facto government under a recently-promulgated decree of the civil Governor of the State, according to an American mining engineer who reached the border from Guanajuato City today. Hundreds of peons in the State have died recently from disease superinduced by malnutrition, he asserted.

THREATS OF ATTACK.

TROOPS POSTED TO HEAD OFF VILLA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHIHUAHUA (Mex.) Sept. 13.—With the troops of Gen. Huerta Vargas posted along the line of the Mexican Central Railway ready to head off any attempt of the Villa troops to escape in that direction, Gen. Cavazos, pushing northeast with his command from Namiquipa and the American expeditionary force forming the third section of the circle, Gen. Trevino states here that Villa is now in a position from which it will be extremely difficult to escape.

The American expedition has forces at San Buenaventura and Carmen on the lookout for the bandits. San Buenaventura is on the main wagon road to the central railway and gives the Americans the control of the only easy exit for Villa from his present position into Northwestern Chihuahua.

COURT IN COLORADO HEARS OIL CASE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DENVER (Colo.) Sept. 13.—Arguments in the suit of the United States government against the Grass Creek Oil Company and the Ohio Oil Company, Wyoming concerns, were heard in the Federal Court of Appeals here today. The case involves title to oil lands in Wyoming valued at $1,000,000. The government seeks to have the land restored to the public domain. The case, oil men pointed out, is of far-reaching importance in the government litigation to recover land in Wyoming and Southern California under the withdrawal order of former President Taft.

COLLEGE FRATERNITY ON WOMAN QUESTION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.—Recommendation that measures be taken to curtail the yearly admission of women to membership in the Phi Beta Kappa was made in the report of the secretary, the Rev. Oscar L. Voorhees, submitted to the triennial council of the society here today. The recommendation, the report said, was based upon the fact that of those admitted to membership in the last few years about one-half were women.

"The reputation of the society," said the report, "will rest in years to come upon the work of those whom we now are electing to membership. It will be generally conceded, I think, that a larger share of its reputation must come from its men than from its women members."

The report was placed in the hands of a committee and will be acted upon by the council later. More than 300 delegates representing colleges and universities in all sections of the country are in attendance at the council. The meetings are being held at the University of Pennsylvania.

FOR A PLEBISCITE ON ISLAND SALE.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

COPENHAGEN (via London) Sept. 13.—Premier Zahle yesterday submitted in the Landsthing a bill having as its object the settling of the question of the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States by a plebiscite after a Parliamentary committee has examined into and considered the matter. The first reading of the bill is expected to take place Friday.

The government expects that if the bill is passed the committee will have finished its report on October 4 and the plebiscite can be held October 20. If the bill is adopted the question of the sale of the islands will be a separate question from the general elections, which the members of all the political parties expect will be held later.

TRY NEW METHOD IN TRAIN ROBBERY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BUFFALO (N. Y.) Sept. 13.—Seven passengers on a Canadian Pacific train from Toronto were victims of an unusual robbery as the train crossed into the United States yesterday. The train had been stopped for the customs inspection when a man walked into one of the coaches and began questioning the passengers. Of Mrs. Jessie M. Ardill of New York City, he demanded: "How much money have you got?"

Mrs. Ardill opened her purse and the man counted $110. He returned $65 to the woman, saying that he would have to keep the remainder as a "deposit." He wrote a receipt for the money as "paid over to the United States customs at Buffalo."

In like fashion the man got $38 from Edward Crockett of Brantford, Ont. Five others in the car also gave up money.

DISPUTES WILL'S WORDING.

Morrison Document Tampered with Declares Mrs. King.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—The will of James M. Morrison, whose $8,000,000 estate is involved in the bankruptcy proceedings against his son, Edward W. Morrison, has been tampered with, Mrs. Philo R. King, Morrison's stepmother, testified in the hearing before Federal Judge Landis today.

The word "forever" she said, has been inserted in the will now on file. The word does not appear in the original document, a copy of which she saved from the Chicago fire in 1871. The original will, she said, did not convey the property "forever" but only during Edward Morrison's life.

If Edward W. Morrison dies without children, the will directs that the estate shall go to the city of Chicago for educational purposes. Morrison recently adopted two girls, who, their reputed father, Joseph Burnstein, a junk dealer, said Morrison was their real father.

Ruling.

CALIFORNIA WINES ARE RELEASED IN NORTH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Wine shipments from California to the East, which had been held up pending the adoption of regulations for administering the new revenue law were released today under a temporary ruling obtained from Washington by J. J. Scott, collector of internal revenue in this city.

When the President signed the revenue bill a ruling was made prohibiting the shipment of wine until regulations had been adopted for bonding the shippers, the consignees and the wines in transit.

Collector Scott, finding that the ruling practically prohibited the shipment of wine to the east from California and that a number of wine companies had cars loaded for transit to eastern points presented the situation by telegraph to Washington and the temporary ruling was forthcoming.

The wines will be allowed to proceed on proper reports being made to Collector Scott and these reports will be taken later as the bases for the collection of the tax.

Offensive.

THAT SOUTHERN ACCENT MAY DEFEAT DEMOCRATS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 13.—A curious echo of the Maine campaign has reached Democratic headquarters here and seems likely to upset previous plans for the campaign in the big pivotal States of the North.

Scouts have brought back word that the soft southern accent of so many of the Wilson orators was an offense to the Maine voters' ears, particularly after the deep impression made by the Republican charges of sectionalism in the present administration.

As a consequence, the Democrats are considering whether such rich accents as those of Josephus Daniels and Atty-Gen. Gregory are an asset or a liability in a northern campaign. It is more than possible that many of the speaking tours that had been mapped out for Dixie orators will be cancelled and that northern talkers will be substituted if they can be found.

The great difficulty is that available northern Democrats are few. The big men of the present administration, both in the executive departments and in Congress, are southerners.

PROSPEROUS STEEL YEAR FARRELL'S PREDICTION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 13.—James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation, speaking at a banquet tonight, predicted a prosperous year for the steel industry.

"Nineteen hundred and sixteen probably will go down in history as one of the most remarkable years that the iron and steel industry ever has known," he declared. "Without the necessity of resorting to prophecy we can assume that 1917 will see the blast furnace and steel works of this country operating at capacity."

Other speakers were Homer D. Williams, president of the Carnegie Steel Company, and Congressman Henry W. Temple of Washington, Pa.

SUBMARINE POLICY OF THE GERMANS.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]

BERLIN, Sept. 13 (via London, Sept. 13, 2:40 p.m.)—The weeks which have passed since the appointment of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg as chief of the general staff, have been marked by almost complete cessation of the discussion in regard to resumption of submarine warfare on the old or a more vigorous basis. Non-partisan newspaper observers who are in touch with leading statesmen and politicians express the opinion that for the present at least there will arise no question of a change in submarine policy.

Should he be assured that no revival of the underwater campaign is contemplated, Ambassador Gerard may take advantage of the opportunity for a trip to the United states, as he feels the need of a vacation.

Kidney Disorder

(By Dr. V. M. Pierce)

"The most simple methods are usually the most effective ones when treating any disorder of the human system." The mere drinking a cup of hot water each morning, plenty of pure water all day, and a little anuric before every meal has been found the most effective means of overcoming kidney trouble. Death would occur if the kidneys did not work night and day in separating poisons and uric acid from the blood.

The danger signals are backache, depressions, aches and pains, heaviness, drowsyness, irritability, headaches, chilliness, rheumatic twinges, swollen joints or gout.

Since it is such a simple matter to step into your favorite drug store and obtain anuric, as every druggist dispenses it, anyone who earnestly desires to regain health and new life will waste no time in beginning this treatment.

CAN'T FIND FORD; MAYBE HE'S LOST.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Henry Ford, the Detroit automobile manufacturer and backer of the recent expedition to Europe to endeavor to bring about peace, is lost "somewhere in San Francisco." That is, he is lost in the sense that he cannot be found.

Ford arrived in Oakland across the bay in his private car early this morning. But he left the car at the Sixteenth-street station and slipped quietly across to San Francisco, likewise giving his would-be welcomers the slip. Mrs. Ford, who accompanies him, remained in the car, and stated that her husband wished to "avoid the fuss of a reception and walk about the city unnoticed."

The Ford party is scheduled to leave late this afternoon for Los Angeles.

CALOMEL TODAY SICK TOMORROW

Dose of nasty calomel makes you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out just go to your druggist and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides it may salivate you; while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give children; they like it.

ASKS COURT'S AID TO DRESS WELL.

DAUGHTER OF BOUCICAULT WANTS BIGGER INCOME.

Declares She will Never Live with Her Husband Again and Meanwhile Desires Income Increased so She Can Make Good Showing in England.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 13.—Mrs. Renee Boucicault Seelye, daughter of the late Aubrey Boucicault, actor, and wife of Clarel R. Seelye, a New York business man, no longer is living with her husband, and in a petition filed today in the Surrogate's court she insists she never will live with him again.

Mrs. Seelye, who was married in October of 1914, when she was 16 years old, is the beneficiary of two trust funds, amounting to $250,000. From this she is allowed by order of the Surrogate court $4500 a year, for she still is a minor. In her petition she asks that an extra $5000 be allowed her this year, as she desires to take a trip to England and visit relatives there. These, the petition says, are persons in affluent circumstances, who dress well, and the petitioner desires to be clad as well as they.

In the petition Mrs. Seelye also explains that the relations between her and Frederick Cyrus Leubuscher, her guardian, appointed by the court, have been "strained and unpleasant," and adds she was obliged to engage counsel to present the petition because he refused to make the application for extra allowance.

Before entering the suffrage field Miss Nevins was trained as a nurse. She was 54 years old and was regarded as wealthy.

ITCHING ECZEMA IS A CONSTANT BLOOD CRY

The Blood Reaches Every Part of the Body Every Twelve Seconds.

There are approximately 70,000,000 pores or openings in the skin of a human body. These connect with the blood channels by means of little canals. These canals are sometimes filled with poisons, and thus the skin scales and blisters, becomes red and raw and the skin of man is like so much tissue fire. Salves and lotions, plasters, etc., do not reach the source of the trouble. To make the blood pure is the only sensible and scientific method of relief. To make the blood pure you must assist nature in the way she wants to be helped. S. S. S. is the greatest blood purifier because it is a natural one. There is not a mineral of any sort in it. It is purely vegetable in every essence. The blood welcomes S. S. S. and it quickly reaches the seat of trouble. So great is the fame of this blood remedy that many substitutes trail along in various sections of the country. They will all, sooner or later, die a natural death. S. S. S. builds up weak and acidy blood, gives prompt relief to almost every case of eczema, winter tetter and other troublesome skin maladies. You owe yourself the duty of trying a bottle of S. S. S. Take no substitute. Write for our free book on skin diseases. Confidential letters replied to by our medical expert if you will write Swift's Specific Company, Department 33, Atlanta, Ga.

COLORED PREACHER HUSTLED OUT BY MOB.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SILVERTON (Or.) Sept. 13.—James E. Fray, colored preacher, who has been conducting tent meetings for the last month, was ridden out of town by a mob last night. Citizens believed him to be the direct cause of Ed S. Johnson, a local hop man, losing his mind over religious subjects.

Johnson had been a regular attendant at the meetings, and was completely carried away by the negro's teachings.

In his talks the negro attacked the churches and used language of an obscene nature in making his different points. The preacher seemed to exert a hypnotic influence over some of his hearers.

The negro and a fellow-worker were seized after last night's meeting, hustled into an automobile and taken into the country, where they were dumped out and warned not to return.

Fray, while not connecting himself with a denomination or creed, termed himself a "holy goer."

Johnson was committed to the hospital for the insane Tuesday afternoon in a lamentable condition.

JAPAN IS SOLID FOR THE ALLIES.

WILLING TO ABIDE BY THE PARIS CONFERENCE.

Chambers of Commerce Desire that a Little Better Treatment be Accorded Their Goods, and Express Opinions on Other War-time Measures.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

TOKIO, Aug. 15.—Resolutions declaring that the decisions of the Economic Conference of Paris are on the whole acceptable have been adopted by the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Japan. Viscount Ishii, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, declares that the resolutions will help dispel suspicions, abroad that Japan is not solid in supporting the cause of the Entente allies.

As to post-bellum measures, the meeting voted that the Entente allies should protect themselves against commercial aggression by tariffs and other means and promote economic rapprochement, and that the allies should freely open their national resources to one another and should refrain from a preferential policy in matters of import duties as far as the Entente allies are concerned. The resolutions continued:

"The Chambers of Commerce desire that

"(a) The Entente allies should amend their treatment of the goods exported from Japan. The treaties between Japan and England or France are partial in that there are fewer conventional tariffs on the other side than on this, and such partiality should be corrected. Between Japan and Russia there are no conventional tariff arrangements, and these arrangements should now be made.

"(b) Regarding the preferential tariffs between one of the Entente allies and its dominions it is desirable that no power should establish preferential tariffs with its dominions lest Japanese export trade be adversely affected."

The last is undoubtedly framed to meet tariff conditions between England and the colonies of Canada and Australia.

The congress requested the government to take steps for the incorporation of the resolutions so far as Japan is concerned. Japan has not yet adhered to the policy of the Entente allies that there shall be no "trading with the enemy." In view of this, the resolutions of the business men expressing approval of the war period proposals of the Paris conference have created a great deal of interest. It is expected that the attitude of the government will be announced shortly.

POTATO BLIGHT APPEARS IN IRELAND.

[A. P. FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.]

DUBLIN (Ireland) Aug. 25.—Potato blight has made its appearance in Ireland. Two hundred and seventy subdistricts of the country are said to be affected by it. This year preventative spraying materials are more costly than usual and less easily procured, and this, together with wet weather during July, is believed to have accounted for the rapid spread of the disease. The congested districts board has distributed spraying machines to the people of the western districts, and it is hoped the disease will soon be checked.

The drafts in question were drawn by Morris and Osborne on Dodge, Inc.

FIGHT TO STOP FOREST FIRES.

Prof. Wing of Stanford Takes Charge of Battle.

Forty Students are Rushed to Crucial Spots.

Homes of Capitalists Said to be in Danger.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN JOSE, Sept. 13.—Acting on instructions which came direct from Gov. Johnson through the State Board of Forestry, Prof. Charles B. Wing of Stanford University, chairman of the California Redwood Park Commission, late today took charge of the battle which was being fought tonight to keep the forest fire which has been raging on the eastern slope of the Santa Cruz Mountains since Sunday from spreading into the big basin and contiguous timber lands, which are among the richest in the State. Forty Stanford students were rushed to the crucial spots tonight, twenty men were sent from here by Sheriff A. B. Langford, and every available man on a half-dozen mountain ranches was thrown into the fight. If the fire is not stopped tonight, experts say, its possibilities for destruction are almost unlimited.

The homes of James Rolph, Jr., Mayor of San Francisco; C. J. Deering, San Francisco capitalist, and C. H. Letcher and Louis O'Neal of San Jose were all in danger tonight.

GETS NEW IMPETUS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—The fire in the foothills of the Santa Cruz Mountains that has been burning for three days received new impetus today from a change in the direction of the wind and now seriously threatens the Big Basin, according to a telephone message received this afternoon by Charles J. Deering, vice-president of the Union Trust Company of San Francisco.

"We thought this morning," said Mr. Deering, "that we had the fire under control, but the wind changed and now, according to a message I have just received from the men who are fighting the fire, the blaze is going worse than ever."

"The fire is now more than five miles down the other side of Alpine ridge, south of Los Altos, and going rapidly south. Only one more ridge intervenes between it and the Big Basin, and there is a lot of big timber leading down into the Big Basin. If it gets into that the chances are that it will reach the Big Basin."

A report from Grass Valley says a forest fire in Nevada county has burned over 3000 acres of brush and timber land, destroyed hundreds of cords of stacked wood and is still unchecked.

The fire that for several days has been burning in the Oroville district continues to be a menace, the situation being reported as unchanged from yesterday.

Thousands of volunteer fire fighters have been on the batte line two and three days and are almost exhausted, but dare not relax their efforts lest the flames spring into renewed life and undo all the work that has been done toward holding them in check.

Some residents of the Santa Cruz mountain fire zone, fearing that their homes would fall prey to the flames, have removed their furniture and other houshold goods and their live stock.

Millionaires, bankers and rich merchants have for nearly three days been fighting side by side with their rural employees and are equally red-eyed, weary and smoke-begrimed.

The country is particularly dry this time of year and a spark may easily start a conflagration. The many forest, brush and grass fires are largely ascribed to the carelessness of hunters and campers who have let their camp fires get away from them.

The fire tonight was burning fiercely in Deer Patch Gulch toward Black Mountain and the head of Stevens Creek, where the redwoods of the Alpine district begin. Prof. Wing declared that if it was not brought under control before it reached to top of the ridge the park and its stately redwoods would be destroyed in a few hours.

Prof. Wing divided his Stanford students into two squads, dispatching one section to the bottom of the canyon in the Montebello district, where the fire is climbing to Black Mountain and the State park, and putting the other section at work on the Deering property on Yeagus Creek.

Forty prisoners from the Santa Clara County Jail and five truckloads of employees of the Pacific Gas and Electric company augmented the fire-fighting force tonight.

"Hidden Villa," the home of Charles J. Deering, from which the furnishings had been moved and to which they were moved back again early today when the danger seemed to have passed, was again stripped tonight and the fire fighters were facing another battle to save the place from destruction.

AT GRASS VALLEY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

GRASS VALLEY, Sept. 13.—The forest fires in Nevada county have destroyed the McLeod place, a landmark of pioneer days. The forest service has several men working to extinguish the fires, which are not serious, as no aid has been called from Nevada City or Grass Valley.

AT HEALDSBURG.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

HEALDSBURG, Sept. 13.—Healdsburg today lies under a thick blanket of smoke rising from the several forest fires that are burning in this vicinity.

Thus far no reports of serious damage have been received, though the flames have swept over considerable areas, but fears are felt that much damage may result if the fires increase in size. They are reported today, however, as being practically under control.

The nearest fire to Healdsburg is on Mill Creek, about eight miles from here. Another is burning in the Geyserville district, near Skaggs Springs, and a third near Sweetwater Springs.

Hundreds of volunteers are fighting the flames.

AT OROVILLE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

OROVILLE, Sept. 13.—The forest fire that has been raging since Sunday morning in the foothills is under control. It burned over 50,000 acres of land, destroying many hundreds of cords of wood and damaging olive groves as well as destroying feed. The damage cannot be estimated at this time.

INDIAN GOES MILES TO SEE REAL CIRCUS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MARYSVILLE, Sept. 13.—William Carr, Indian, 75, wanted to see a circus before he died, no matter at what cost. Today he saw it. But first he walked eighty-five miles from Sierra county to Marysville—and walked it twice.

Carr got his dates mixed and came the first time a month too soon. So he went home. Today he arrived again, on foot, in time to see the parade, and called at a newspaper office for a ticket that had been promised him the first time if he would come back when the circus came to town. Now he's seen a real live elephant and the clowns and he's ready to walk the eighty-five miles back home.

ORE STRIKE AT OATMAN.

Vein of Great Magnitude Found on the Four-hundred-foot Level.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

OATMAN (Ariz.) Sept. 13.—The Oatman camp was astir tonight over a new development that means the presenting to the country of a new big mine. It was learned tonight that the Astec, controlled by the Tom Reed, has struck the vein on the 400-foot level. The encountering of the ore, which is of great magnitude, was made in cutting a station on the 400 level.

The Astec is located 400 feet from the Big Jim end line, lying between that company's property and the Black Eagle, which is also controlled by the Tom Reed. The Tom Reed company does not give out any information, but from a highly-authentic source it was ascertained that they are in the vein in the Astec for a distance of fifteen feet, with no end in sight.

No official assay is obtainable. Dump experts have had some of the samples assayed and values ranging from $30 to $200 were secured. It is the consensus of opinion among the mining men here that the strike is of even greater magnitude than when the Big Jim hit the ore on the 400.

It was reported late tonight that Lester M. Dull of Los Angeles, has struck the ore in the shaft at a shallow depth of eighty feet. The importance of this report was shown when another shift was put on, making three shifts working the property.

CHINESE MERCHANT'S DAUGHTER ELOPES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 13.—Lee Fung, rich merchant, woke up in his Astoria home yesterday and yelled up the stairs to his 16-year-old daughter, Nellie, the idol of his eye.

No Chinese equivalent for "just a minute, dad" wafted back. Only echo came back to answer Lee. The father dropped into the low English mode of reasoning and figured his daughter must have gone away with that young Wong Kee boy, who had been burning the gas lately. He was right. Heedless of Lee's objections that his daughter was too young to marry, Wong Kee had sneaked the girl out of town in an elopement. Lee took the next train for Portland and invoked the aid of the police and located the elopers today, but small good it did Lee, for young Wong showed them and Lee a new and sufficient marriage certificate in American style. Lee stormed, but forgave.

NAVY PAYMASTER REPORTED ENGAGED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 13.—Lieut. Herbert Lassiter, U.S.N., paymaster with a present assignment on board the battleship Oregon, arrived in Portland today, having come to Flavel on the steamer Great Northern. When he returns next Saturday it will be as a benedict. His bride-to-be is Miss Clare McNeill, niece of Mrs. A. McNeill of this city. Miss McNeill is an accomplished young woman and is prominent socially here and in Honolulu and Manila, where she spent considerable time in army circles as the guest of her sister, wife of Capt. Moore, U.S.A., up to two years ago.

Lieut. Lassiter and Miss McNeill will be married at St. Michael's Church next Saturday morning and leave immediately thereafter for San Francisco.

MRS. ABBIE KREBS GIVEN APPOINTMENT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Mrs. Abbie E. Krebs of San Francisco, chairman of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Republican State Central Committee, has been appointed one of the California members of the Republican National Campaign Committee of Women, it was announced here tonight.

Notification of her appointment was received from national headquarters in New York. The women's campaign committee will have charge of the campaign among women in the twelve suffrage States for Hughes and Fairbanks.

WOMAN GIVES CLUE TO OLD MURDER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

OAKLAND, Sept. 13.—Mrs. Clara May Liley, 20 years old, today turned over to the Sheriff's office clothing, pictures and other articles which disappeared from the cabin of Thomas Raffleton, a young miner near Auburn, the night of his murder on April 20, 1911. She declares they were left in her possession by her husband, Edward John Liley, whom she has not seen for five years and from whom she now seeks a divorce. The police investigating the murder of Raffleton at the time were unable to reach any solution. A man named Bremer was arrested, but subsequently released, no proof being adduced to hold him. Mrs. Liley has given the Sheriff also an account of her husband's actions at this time, of his alleged confession to her and of his subsequent statements, in which she alleges he owned also to an assault upon a Philadelphia policeman.

STATE SERVICE GETS RESERVES

Muster in Coast Artillery Troops Next Week.

To Organize Nine Companies in Los Angeles.

Force to Man Harbor For... in War Time.

Twelve companies of Coast Artillery Reserve, with a regimental band, supply company and full field hospital detachment, will be mustered into the State service here Wednesday next, according to Harry B. Light, who has been instrumental in organizing the reserve regiment and who returned yesterday from Sacramento, assured by Acting Adjt.-Gen. Borree that the troops will be accepted. It is understood that Mr. Light will be tendered a commission as colonel in command of the regiment for his services in organizing the force.

Of the twelve companies, nine will be from Los Angeles and one each from San Pedro, Glendale and Hollywood. Approximately 900 officers and men have been enrolled and it is expected Lieut.-Col. Herbert Fay, C.A.C., U.S.A., now at San Diego, will formally enlist them at Exposition Park armory next Wednesday.

Mr. Light has been working out details of the organization and securing enrollments since the early part of June last. A majority of the men now enrolled for the Coast Artillery Reserve offered their services to the United States as a volunteer infantry organization when trouble with Mexico seemed near. When it was found there was no probability of actual conflict and that their services as volunteers would not be required, Mr. Light received permission to organize the reserve artillery regiment. Gov. Johnson authorized the acting adjutant-general to accept the force into the State National Guard Tuesday.

A fund of $5300 has been subscribed, which is expected to be sufficient for the needs of the regiment until an appropriation is made by the State. Uniforms and equipment will be issued in about a month, according to Mr. Light. Pending the leasing of a suitable armory, headquarters for the new organization will be maintained at No. 258 South Broadway. It is understood a benefit performances will be held soon and the proceeds utilized in securing an armory.

The need of a reserve force to man Fort MacArthur in the absence of the regular garrison has been frequently called to the attention of the State officials by Maj. Pillsbury, U.S.A., local United States District Engineer, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and many others. The twelve additional companies will double the State Coast Artillery force, which, at present consists of two companies at San Francisco and two companies at San Diego.

Tentative officers of the regiment are: Colonel, Harry B. Light; lieutenant-colonel, R. L. Krueger; majors, F. R. McReynolds, J. R. Cunningham and E. G. Mettler; regimental adjutant, Capt. H. L. Powell, Jr.; battalion adjutants, First Lieutenants C. W. MacFarlane, J. T. Jones and R. T. Sharp.

Capt. J. T. Golding, supply officer; H. R. Griffin, chaplain; Maj. F. C. Fuller, Capt. J. McKenzie Brown and First Lieutenants LeRoy Bailey and

Lieut. Walter Smith

BILLINGS'S PAST SHOWN IN TRI

Scraps of Metal Taken from Street are Identified.

Startling Evidence Presented by the Prosecution.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Evidence designed to prove that the nails and ball bearings found in the home of Warren K. Billings, alleged bomb planter, were similar in size and make to those contained in the suitcase bomb which exploded during the preparedness parade here June 22 was introduced by the prosecution here today at the Billings murder trial. Billings is the first of the defendants to go to trial for the murder of the ten people who died as a result of the outrage.

Detective Sergeant Stephen Langer testified that he searched Billings's room and found bullets and bullet casings, as well as a rifle, revolver, clothes and hats. Early in the day souvenir hunters identified ball bearings, fragments of pipe and scraps of steel found in the street near the scene of the explosion. Questions by Billings's counsel indicated they will contend the bullets were used for rifle shooting and the bearings were used by Billings in his labors at a local garage.

HINT OF INTIMIDATION.

Possible intimidation of the jury was hinted at by Superior Judge Frank Dunne when, just before adjournment, he asked the jury the following question: "Have any attempts to intimidate you been made by word of mouth, telephone or otherwise?" Judge Dunne later said he knew of no attempts at intimidation and asked the questions as a precautionary measure.

Portions of Billings's past record were revealed today when two prominent detectives, Henry Bahn and William Kramer, testified that they arrested him for carrying dynamite in 1912. For this crime he served four years in the Folsom penitentiary. The detectives declared they believed he was on his way to dynamite the power-house of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, whose employes were on strike.

Other witnesses today identified metal fragments they removed from their own bodies after being hit, or from remains of friends killed by the explosion.

DIDN'T SEE EXPLOSION.

No witnesses have yet stated they saw the explosion. All the prosecution's witnesses who identified goods today were asked by the defense counsel if they saw the bomb placed and all replied the crowd was too thick they could not, from their positions, see anything but waving people, flying metal, a dense cloud of white smoke, hurrying ambulances and a greatly-excited crowd.

Startling evidence against Billings, yet undisclosed, will be brought forward in the case soon, the prosecution has intimated today. It is understood several witnesses yet unheard of by the defense will testify.

Billings continued today to take copious notes as he sat alongside his attorney. He is of small build and but 32 years old—barely more than a boy—and seems very much interested in the case, as his friends count on. talk to him during the intermissions. He converses freely, however, with his attorney, policemen and reporters, and poses smilingly for photographers.

MINOR IS READMITTED.

Robert Minor of New York, leader of the International Workers' Defense League, which is financing the defense, was readmitted to the courtroom today, after being barred yesterday. The other four defendants in the case are not allowed to hear the testimony.

OFFICERS APPROVE A COAST RESERVE.

MAJ. ABERNATHY PROMISES DEPARTMENT HELP.

On Tour of Inspection Giant Army Man will be Remembered as Challenger of Jack Johnson. Instead He Fought Mosquitoes on Mexican Border.

That the proposed Coast Artillery Reserve for Fort MacArthur has the "highest approval" of army officers at department headquarters in San Francisco, was affirmed here last night by Maj. R. S. Abernathy, C.A.C., U.S.A., acting inspector-general of the Western Department.

At the Clark, where he is staying, Maj. Abernathy said: "We had seen something of the proposed reserve in the San Francisco papers but had no idea the project was as well under way as it seems to be, until we got Sunday's issue of The Times. I am certainly glad to see Los Angeles coming to the front on this reserve question and you may rely on every assistance from department officials.

"The proposed reserve should appeal particularly to technical men, electrical and mechanical engineers, et cetera. It is a distinctly different arm of the service and men who do not take much interest in infantry, or cavalry, will find the Coast Artillery to their liking. I should not be surprised to see your first company actually firing the big guns within a year."

Maj. Abernathy, who is here on a tour of inspection, has been a Coast Artillery officer more than fifteen years. He is under orders to proceed to Manila about December 1, next. Accompanying him on his present inspection is C. M. Savage of San Francisco, one of the field clerks of the Western Department.

About six years ago, Maj. Abernathy, then a captain, created quite a stir in army circles when it became known he proposed to wrest the heavyweight championship from Jack Johnson. The army man, who stands 6 feet, 4½ inches in his bare feet, has a forty-six-inch chest, wears a size 17½ collar and weighs 245 pounds. He has been widely known as an athlete since his football days at West Point.

While full details of the affair are known only to Maj. Abernathy, who has consistently refused to discuss it, it was stated that betting men in military circles considered they had lost a small fortune when the War Department officials refused to grant his request for leave of absence to train for the bout. Instead, President Taft sent him to fight mosquitoes on the border with the first separate brigade of artillery troops designated as provisional infantry when the Mexican situation was considered serious in March, 1911.

Of the Coast Artillery Corps, who met with Chamber of Commerce committee yesterday in matter of organizing a reserve company for emergency service at Fort MacArthur.

ADVANCE MOVE TO MAN FORT MACARTHUR GUNS.

FINAL arrangements for the organization here of a reserve coast artillery company to man the big guns at Fort MacArthur in time of emergency were completed yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce and petitions addressed to the Governor placed for signatures at the office of Maj. A. J. Copp, Jr., Rm. 418 Copp Building; Smith Bros., Rm. 1020 South Figueroa street, and at the chamber.

Lieut. Walter Smith of the Coast Artillery Corps, stationed at Fort Ward, Wash., met with a committee of the chamber and plans for the organization of a Los Angeles company, to form the first unit of an artillery corps to be mustered into service of the United States and the State of California, were discussed. Lieut. Smith gave the committee much valuable information as to the organization and operation of such a body.

The committee in charge of the organization of this company is headed by Maj. Andrew J. Copp, Percy W. Weidner and Dana R. Weller. The plan is to attract as many of the men who attended the encampment at Monterey as possible, as it is very important that men of a high type be secured for this service.

The plan is also to secure men of standing in the community, as the social side of the movement will be an important factor in its success. The aim is also to make this a crack organization that will rank high in military circles.

The fact that the artillery branch of the service calls for a high degree of skill and a thorough knowledge of higher mathematics gives it a scientific aspect that it is hoped will appeal to men of a high order of intelligence.

The committee is very desirous that organization be effected at once and an invitation is extended to all men in Los Angeles who are interested in the proper defense of our city to apply at once.

As soon as the corps is recruited to full strength the War Department will detail an experienced army officer to take command and direct the instruction of the company.

WHITTIER, Sept. 13.—If James F. Miss Grace Holloway, who presides over the destinies of the High School's culinary laboratory, furnishes the following California recipe: One-half cup milk; one tablespoon fat (whatever kind is preferred;) one-half cup sugar; two teaspoons baking powder; one teaspoon salt; one egg; two cups flour. Now beat the egg, add sugar, melted fat and milk, alternately with the other sifted ingredients. Add more flour if necessary. Roll about one-half inch thick. Cut and fry in smoking hot fat until a golden brown. Many prefer old-fashioned lard and others new-fashioned crisco as a frying medium.

FOR WHEELER FUNERAL.

Body of Dead Man will be cremated and Ashes Placed in Niche at Rosedale—Family Physician Believes Worry Dethroned Reason.

The funeral of J. Anson Wheeler, late of the Bryson apartments, a wealthy mining man and promoter, will be held at 9:30 o'clock this morning from the chapel of the Edwards, Garnash & Heath undertaking parlors. Following a simple service the body will be taken to the crematory at Rosedale, escorted by Knights Templar.

The ashes will repose in a nitch at Rosedale, in accordance with the last wishes of the dead man. In one letter written to his wife he asked that either he be buried at Monrovia or his body be cremated and the urn placed at Rosedale. In a later note, written just prior to his death, the same desire was expressed.

Dr. Ross Moore, who had treated Mr. Wheeler for nearly ten years, stated yesterday that, in his opinion, Mr. Wheeler's mind broke under the strain of business. He stated that Mr. Wheeler was a man who engaged in large ventures only, and that he had in hand a mammoth land project, as well as a plan to reopen large mines.

But men who had always thrown open their purses for Mr. Wheeler's promotion work were unable at the present time to finance the two propositions. These financiers reside in Canada and England, and the ravages of the war had completely tied up their resources. Worrying over these conditions, Dr. Moore ventured, drove the already nervous man into a condition where his reason was dethroned.

NARROW ESCAPE OF PASADENA GROCER.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Sept. 13.—J. B. McGinnis, a grocer at Stevenson avenue and Villa street, was fortunate yesterday, when he escaped death in an accident at the Wilson-avenue crossing. His motor car was struck by the engine of a Santa Fe passenger train and demolished. The train crew found him under the wreck of his machine with the fender resting on his head. Although his motor car was turned over twice and hurled against a post by the impact, Mr. McGinnis escaped with comparatively slight injuries. He was treated at the Emergency Hospital.

Why Suffer From Migraine or Sick Headache?

Dr. J. J. Caldwell says that this exceedingly distressing disease does not shorten life, but does not appear to be curable. Sufferers from this affliction are condemned to undergo the periodical attacks every few weeks until they are forty years of age, after which the attacks are less frequent, and finally disappear entirely. Palliative measures during the attack are all that it is possible to suggest, while care in the diet is the best preventive measure. An attack may often be prevented by taking two anti-kamnia tablets when the first symptoms appear, and one anti-kamnia tablet every two hours during the attack shortens it, eases the pain and brings rest and quiet. Anti-kamnia tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets. They quickly relieve all Pain.

MINER FALLS FOR OLD BUNCO GAME.

TWO WELL-DRESSED CROOKS FLEECE COLORADOAN.

Matches Coins at Redondo Beach with "Friends" He Met at Venice and Loses Over a Thousand Dollars—No Place for Honest Man.

Paul R. Langley, a miner of Boulder, Colo., walked into Central Police Station early last night and announced to Lieutenant of Detectives Chapman that Los Angeles was no place for an honest miner with a money belt heavy with hard-earned cash to have a good time.

"I don't mind spending my money," declared Langley, "but I hate to have it taken away from me." According to the miner from Boulder bunco men relieved him of $1030 out of a total of $1130, the sum which he brought from his home town to spend in this city.

From what the police were able to learn from Mr. Langley he met the first of the bunco men while spending a day at Venice. From there, he stated, he went to Redondo Beach with his new-found friend, whose name he never heard, and there met a second man, who soon after the meeting "flashed" a large roll of bills.

Bunco man No. 1, according to Mr. Langley, then took him to one side and planned to start a coin-matching game with No. 2 and so arranged it with the miner that No. 1 would get all the money and then make a division of the spoils later. The three men then started the game and No. 1 won all but $100 of Mr. Langley's money as well as all of No. 2's cash.

Mr. Langley told Lieut. Chapman that at this point in the game No. 2 started to call for the police and No. 1 ran, saying that he would meet Mr. Langley in Los Angeles and make the "split." Mr. Langley left the beach and waited in his hotel for No. 1 and when he did not arrive reported the matter to the police.

The two bunco men, according to Mr. Langley, were very well dressed and both about 50 years of age. One was an American and the other an Italian.

FOR SALE—FRANKLIN SIX FIVE-PASSENGER touring car at $1000 on terms or cash. This is the popular Series Six model and is in excellent condition. The former owner traded this car in on a four-passenger Chandler roadster and we are selling it below the allowance price, thereby sharing part of our profit in the new car sale with you, for you will find that it pays to purchase your car from such a company as ours. We do not have to make a profit on these used cars, but we have to maintain our reputation, and therefore we see that every used car sold is in first-class condition or it is rejected. We have a school to sell it to the bank man. These are no junk cars for sale to the public at this place. Every car sold is fully guaranteed under the same conditions as if you purchased a new car, and we extend 90 days' service in addition. Need all of our advertisements in today's papers. SOCIETY WOMAN'S JEWELS MISSING.

BELIEVE THIEF IS WORKING EXCLUSIVE CLUB.

Many Valuable Diamonds Gone When Mrs. Brainerd Returns to Room After Stroll Around Grounds—From Actions Guests Suspect Negro Maid.

Mrs. E. R. Brainerd, well-known society and club woman, reported to the police yesterday she had lost jewels valued at more than $5000 while a guest at the exclusive Town and Country Club on Mt. Washington. The burglary occurred during the afternoon, while she was a guest at the club.

The missing jewels include a bracelet set with diamonds, valued at $1000, another set with precious stones, the value of which is not estimated; a gold pin set with nine large diamonds, valued in excess of $2500; a diamond ring with the initials "E. R. B." engraved around the setting, and a valuable meerschaum pipe stolen from an adjoining room.

Mrs. Brainerd motored to the club in the afternoon, and after resting in her room for a short time, went for a stroll around the grounds. She was gone less than an hour, but when she returned the jewelry was missing.

Several guests in the clubhouse reported the mysterious action of a negro maid, and the police are investigating her conduct. The burglary is one of the largest, from the standpoint of values, to have occurred in recent months.

BOYS WILL BE BOYS.

Peach Orchard and Swimming Pool Too Much for Lads, Says Owner, Who Marches Nine of Them to Juvenile Hall. Mothers Wrathy.

A swimming pool and a peach orchard are two things no boy can resist. To reach the pool the boys in this case passed through the orchard. As fruit will, the peaches got in the way of the boys. William Moran, the owner, of No. 1150 Hilldale place, says the boys took peaches and when he reprimanded them, threw stones at him.

One day when the boys were at the pool Mr. Moran appeared with three other men, corraled the lads, and led them to Juvenile Hall. In the homes of the boys anxious mothers waited and worried. Suppers were put aside for the sons and hurry calls sent out. Along about midnight, the sons returned. Then anxiety turned to wrath, for the mothers thought they should have been notified by Mr. Moran. The boys told their mothers they did not take the peaches or throw stones at Mr. Moran.

Yesterday the nine lads were called before Judge Reeve and at the request of Mr. Moran those of 10 and 12 years, dismissed. The elders will be kept on the anxious bench for a time while the matter is investigated.

NITY TO ASK OF THE Proposal to Buy Companies on
THE City Council's Public Service Committee and the Public Service Commission decided evening to ask for a rehearing the full State Railroad Commission instead of by one member, for valuation of the plant and property of the Southern California Edison Company for condemnation purposes, being dissatisfied with the initial valuation of $6,328,000 as announced last week.
Doris Workman, a member of the Public Service Commission, has however, suggested a proposition which will obviate this expense and save at least $100,000. Mr. Workman suggests that the city hold buy the plants of the three corporations, the Southern California Edison Company, the Pacific Light & Power Company and the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation. This, he says, could be done by the installment plan, the city paying down what money it has available for power from the bond issues and letting the plants pay out the rest, thus giving the city a monopoly. President R. F. Del Valle of the Board of Public Service Commissioners, also expressed the opinion that the city does not want to parallel if it can avoid it and it does not want to go to the people to ask for more bond issues.
WORKMAN PROPOSITION.
Following the conference Mr. Workman said:
"I think it would be very desirable for the city to get all the power plants into a pool and put up bonds for the proposition that the city buy, on time, all the properties the city will need," said Mr. Work.

...WORKMAN PROPOSITION.

...during the conference Mr. ...man said:

"I think it would be very desir... for the city to get all the power ...ld into a pool and put up ...e proposition that the city ...n, on time, all the properties ...ey will need," said Mr. Work-man. "I think the city could afford to be liberal in the price. If the city has to go to the people for bonds it is a good deal better that it should do so on the proposition that it would do away with all competition rather than shutting out one company only. The people would be more liable to vote bonds of that sort than to vote bonds to buy out one company."

Mr. Workman said the city has not enough power to supply the entire city and could not get enough money at the present time to do so.

"They have not enough money to build an entire system for the city," he said, "and they have not power enough developed to do it either; that is, with their present power. They would have to raise some more money to build power-house No. 2 to supply current for the whole city."

In regard to the arrangement which could be made to buy out all the power companies Mr. Workman was asked if this could be done by the city making a payment down and giving notes, secured by mortgages on the properties, for the remainder.

TO BUY POWER.

"There could be some arrangement of that sort," he said, "or we could pay them out of the revenue and get power from them. We would have to buy power and we could enter into a contract with them and buy power for certain terms.

"The simplest way to settle this whole matter would be to buy out the companies. I think it is extremely desirable, as I have said, and I think it possible the deal might be negotiated. It is a serious problem

DIVIDE RICH ESTATE.

Widow and Children of Capitalist, Who Left no Will, Receive all Property—He Was Fatally Injured in Accident Last Month.

Zachariah Graham, capitalist, who was fatally injured in an accident August 10, left no will, and yesterday his widow, Mrs. Mabel A. Graham, came into the Probate Court for letters of administration on his $275,000 estate. She was appointed by Judge Rives and her bond named in the sum of $162,000.

Mrs. Graham will receive under the law one-third of the estate and the remainder will go to the children, Ruth, Helen and Thomas Graham. The petition was represented by Attorneys Davis and Moerdyke.

Mr. Graham left stocks and bonds. One piece of real estate is located on Fourth street between Broadway and Hill streets.

PAY BACK THE MONEY.

Judge Orders Neumann to Return in Monthly Installments Sum Wife Alleges He Took from her Safe Deposit Box. Grants Divorce.

Mrs. Jessie H. Neumann, a dressmaker, whose encounter with her husband, Maurice Neumann, in a shoe store some time ago, caused a flutter among the patrons of the shop, was granted a decree of divorce in Judge Wood's court yesterday on the ground of desertion. The incident of the shoe store was the result, it is said, of Mrs. Neumann discovering that her husband had obtained the keys to a safe deposit box where she kept her savings, and abstracted a large sum.

When she taxed him with it in the shoe store, he is alleged to have exhibited a roll of money and claimed he was entitled to his community half. Mrs. Neumann claimed she had earned the money and that she was entitled to all of it. Judge Wood ordered Mr. Neumann to pay his wife $35 a month until she has received $1600, the amount she alleged was taken out of the safe deposit box.

LOSES; DOES WELL.

So Decides Judge in Case Between Mrs. Parmalee and Eagle Rock Water Company Over Refusal to Pay Fifty-five Cent Bill.

Mrs. W. H. Parmelee of Eagle Rock yesterday defended a suit brought by the Eagle Rock Water Company to collect 55 cents.

It seems the Parmelees were patrons of the Eagle Rock Water Company, but October 8, last, they began to take water from the city's mains, which parallel those of the local concern.

The latter was not notified, however, until the 14th, and sent in a bill. Mrs. Parmelee agreed to compromise for 25 cents, which offer was refused. The combat came off in Justice Hanby's court, and Mrs. Parmelee lost. The justice said she had done well, but the facts were against her, and judgment was given in favor of the corporation for $3.05.

NO MURAL "ART."

Mahogany Finish for Mayor's Office will Cover up Weird Highly-colored Paintings Put on Walls by Former "Trusty" of the City Jail.

A mahogany finished office for the Mayor, with no mural decorations, is the plan of Mayor Woodman. The Board of Public Works yesterday asked the City Council to appropriate $550 for the alterations that will be necessary.

Decorating and painting are estimated, to cost $450; draperies, $60, and railing in outer office, $45. Paper giving a mahogany effect is to be put on the walls to cover the paintings made by a former trusty of the City Jail, and the ceilings are to be given a burnt ivory tint.

Mrs. Catherine K. Leighton, sister of the Mayor, is working out the color scheme with Building Superintendent Backus. Simplicity will be the order.

SAYS CARRANZA BOSSES WILSON.

President Fears Mexico, in R. H. Cole's Opinion.

Man Who Got Recognition for First Chief Talks.

"United States Credit to be Put Behind Republic."

"The real purpose of the present meeting of representatives of the United States and Mexico, I am thoroughly convinced, is not to settle border disputes, but to put the credit of the United States behind the Carranza administration."

This is one of a number of striking statements made yesterday by Richard H. Cole of Pasadena, who was Carranza's personal representative at Washington in the campaign to secure Presidential recognition of Carranza's government. Mr. Cole engineered that campaign, at the personal request of the First Chief, and he is in possession of a vast volume of inside history connected therewith.

"Twenty-six years of his life were spent in Mexico, and he has had a long personal acquaintance with the Maderos, the late President Diaz and Felix Diaz, Carranza and Huerta and others who have figured prominently in Mexican official affairs for the past few years.

"Luis Cabrera, Mexico's Minister of Finance, is now one of the Mexican representatives in the conference at New London," said Mr. Cole. "Because of my three weeks' association with Senor Cabrera in New York City in December of last year, for the purpose of establishing ways and means of financing the wrecked treasury of Mexico, I am convinced that the present commission meeting in New London, Ct., is a part of that programme.

"Talking of lending $100,000,000 to Carranza is like talk of financing Germany's war against all of Europe with a similar amount. Mexico owes $1,000,000,000 or more for depredations and damages, and a sum at least half that size will be required to give the Mexican national treasury anything like working strength.

"The real purpose behind the proposed $100,000,000 loan, I feel certain, is to permit the Wilson administration, through the purchase of Mexican government bonds guaranteeing the $100,000,000 loan, to set a figure, or market price, on other issues of Mexican bonds which must come up to and beyond the billion-dollar mark.

"The Wilson administration is anxious to see Carranza put in a position to pay off these obligations, as it has practically guaranteed the payments, and knows that with the close of the war abroad foreign claimants will be early calling upon Uncle Sam to make good these guarantees.

"This anxiety promises to give Carranza free access to both our money and our credit. Yesterday it was the Columbus outrage; Carrizal, and the militia and the nation rushing to the border; today it is a movement by the administration to give those we fought at Carrizal our aid.

"To my mind, there can be but one answer to such a situation: Carranza has established such an ascendency over the Wilson administration, and is exerting such a powerful influence at Washington, that for months past he has practically stood as a dictator of relations between Mexico and the United States. I believe very sincerely that behind the advertised forebearance of the Wilson administration is a well-defined fear to challenge Carranza.

"The grounds that I have for forming such a conclusion are based on my long association with Mexico and such Mexicans as the Madero brothers, Huerta, Diaz and their chief supporters during the last three years."

START AN INQUIRY INTO LABORITE BOOZE ORGY.

THOMAS B. BILLINGS, one of the bartenders serving drinks to all who carried a red ticket at the Union Labor picnic at Selig Zoo Park on Labor Day, pleaded guilty yesterday in Police Judge Richardson's court to serving liquor without a license and was given a suspended sentence of 100 days in jail. Mr. Billings's plea was entered when he became aware it would be necessary for him to divulge the names of the persons who employed him, if he fought the case.

In delivering judgment Justice Richardson said: "Mr. Billings is obviously not the real offender in this case. He is merely employed to work at the biddings of another, a labor for which he is to receive regular pay. I therefore suspend the sentence."

The manner in which the liquor was sold at the picnic is a scandal which the police have apparently made small effort to expose or purify. Why the police who were assigned to the grounds made no attempt to protect young girls from the temptation of intoxication is matter for an inquiry that has not been ordered.

Chief Snively says he gave the picnic police protection. Billings was not arrested until the Tuesday following the picnic, and the police were ordered to be on the grounds from the time it started, at 9 o'clock in the morning, until it ended.

Efforts are now under way to overcome this apparent easy winking at the conditions by instituting an investigation of the principals in the picnic to show why they should not be questioned about contributing to the delinquency of the girls who were sold liquor over the bar and who were participants in the open violation of the State law and the city ordinance.

The police officers made no report of the drinks having been served to minors. Chief Snively said he knew nothing about it until the report appeared in The Times.

The matter may be taken before the Police Commission and the officers ordered to show why they did not preserve and protect public morals at a public picnic.

MILITARY TRAINING IN THE SCHOOLS INDORSED.

Chamber of Commerce Goes on Record for Establishing a Course to Make Youths Eligible for Army Officers—President Bordwell and Two Members of Board of Education for It.

THE directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday recommended the establishment of military training in the schools in the form of a reserve officers' training course in the Los Angeles city high schools. Under the National Defense Act of June 3, last, provision is made for securing a reserve of officers available for service as temporary officers in the regular army, as officers of the quartermaster corps and other staff corps and departments, as officers for recruit rendezvous and depots and as officers of volunteers, to be members of what is termed the Officers' Rendezvous Corps of the regular army.

Members of this corps are not subject to call in time of peace, but in time of actual war or threatened hostilities they are subject to the orders of the President, subject to such physical examinations as he may prescribe, to temporary duty with the army in grades thereof, which cannot for the time be filled by promotion, or as officers in volunteer or other organizations that may be authorized by law, or as officers of recruit rendezvous or depots, or on such duty as the President may prescribe.

By taking a prescribed course of military science and tactics in a public high school for two years, with an officer of the army detailed as a professor of military science and tactics, with a minimum of 100 pupils enrolled, a qualified man may be registered as an officer of the Officers' Reserve Corps.

Under this act such a Reserve Officers' Training Corps can be established in the Los Angeles city high schools without expense to the taxpayers. The instructor will be an army officer, whose pay will be drawn from the United States Treasury. The government will provide public animals, arms, uniforms, equipment, means of transportation, forage for the animals, etc. This will relieve the high school cadets of the expense of buying their own uniforms at a cost of about $5.

PROVIDES OPPORTUNITY.

Such a course of military science should prove invaluable to the young men of Los Angeles. It would provide all high school boys with the opportunity to prepare for the profession of serving as officers in the regular army and virtually assures them of appointments without expense to the community.

One year ago the Board of Education expressed unwillingness to extend military instruction in the Los Angeles schools. The Chamber of Commerce recommends the attention of the board be called to the National Defense Act. The directors

SCHOOLS DIVIDE STATE'S MONEY.

Los Angeles County Receives Largest Settlement—Big Exchange Saving.

Over $3,000,000 will be distributed to the counties for support of schools within the next few days, and State Treasurer Richardson has made arrangements so the counties can be paid in exchange. This will make the shipping of gold coin unnecessary and result in a big saving to the schools.

The largest settlement of $614,110 goes to Los Angeles county, and the smallest to Alpine, $750. San Francisco gets $329,750; Orange, $54,540; San Bernardino, $77,037.50; Riverside, $5003; San Diego, $94,882.50, and Imperial, $25,750.

Mr. Richardson says: "In order to save all of the apportionment to the schools I have made arrangements to make settlements with county treasurers in exchange and thus save the expense of shipping gold."

Lumberman's Son and Young Girl Arrested.

She Bares Sacrifice of All for Love of Him.

He Admits Forced Marriage to Another; Flight.

With a plaintive smile playing about her lips, Miss Dagna Larson, aged 20 years, sitting in a cell in the matron's department of the County Jail, told last night how the twisted tendrils of love had dragged her from once-high ideals of life to her present plight. The girl, together with John J. Wright, said to be a son of the late lumber king of that name of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, were arrested last evening in an apartment at Venice. They are badly wanted in Idaho, according to the telegraphic warrant received by Sheriff Cline yesterday.

The story of the pretty Norwegian girl is pathetic in the extreme. It is a story of hardship, a barren life that won over heavy obstacles and then a sacrifice of everything for love.

"I came to America six years ago," the girl told Deputy Sheriffs Manning and Wright following her arrest. "It was a great struggle for my people to provide me the funds to come to America. I did not know the language and for two years I led a dreary life. Then I learned nursing. Four years I studied and worked, and at last I was graduated.

"Then I went to Coeur d'Alene. In all my life I had never had a love affair. Life was too hard and time too precious to be spent in frivolities, so as a result I had few social opportunities. Then I met Jack Wright. It was love at sight for both of us and we were quickly engaged to be married.

MARRIAGE OR JAIL.

"On August 26 I met an acquaintance and she told me Mr. Wright had been married that morning to Thelma Beers, an 18-year-old girl. She said that Miss Beers's father had met Wright on the street and had accused him of misconduct with the girl and gave him his choice of getting married or going to jail. Jack was married, but left the State the same day. I was broken-hearted and I went to Seattle and sought work in a hospital. I had just started in my new occupation when a letter arrived from Mr. Wright, forwarded from my last address. He told me of the circumstances of the wedding, that he

THIRTEEN IS LOVE'S JINX.

That Number of Marriage Licenses Beaten by One in Divorces Asked.

Thirteen is love's jinx, too. After several days in which he luxuriated in anywhere from forty to sixty marriage licenses daily, leading divorce suits filed by about three to one, Eros took a nap yesterday after he had chalked up the hoodoo number of wedding permits and Mars, represented by the number of divorce suits filed, beat him out by a nose.

In other words there were fourteen divorce actions placed on record in the County Clerk's office against the thirteen marriage licenses issued.

Yesterday's youngest bride was a little girl named Midgett, Leila M. Midgett, 17 years old, a resident of Dallas, Tex. She is not a Midgett any more, however, but Mrs. Gilbert S. Miller of this city. Incidentally four of the thirteen licenses were issued to Arizona people.

Melancholy Wife Disappears After Discovering Mortgage of Which She Knew Nothing—Husband Knowing Her Nature Fears for the Worst.

Mrs. Grace Rowe discovered a mortgage Tuesday and disappeared from her home, No. 156 West Eighty-third street. Her husband sought for her throughout the night, and yesterday afternoon, in despair turned to the police for aid.

He described Mrs. Rowe as being 42 years old, and of melancholy disposition. She told her relatives she was going to the home of her mother, Mrs. Lee McDonald, No. 1907 Halldale avenue, but never reached that house.

Mr. Rowe said his wife's melancholy nature prevented him from informing her regarding his financial affairs, as they always worried her. Then she chanced on the record of a mortgage of which she knew nothing.

She brooded over it so she became unusually depressed and told other members of the family she was going to visit her mother. Mr. Rowe fears she has become temporarily unbalanced, and has done herself violence.

CHARGE ERRORS MADE AT POLLS.

Woolwine may Ask Recount of the Votes Today.

Secretary of State to Decide Fate of Benedict.

Criswell Socialist Nominee for Congress in Ninth.

Dist.-Atty. Woolwine had not definitely decided last night whether he will demand a recount of the votes cast for him and his opponents at the primary election. He will come to a conclusion in the matter today and his intimate friends say the ballots will be counted over.

"It has been reported to me that there were gross errors made in some of the precincts," the District Attorney said. "In one precinct, which I and my friends had every reason to believe the majority of the votes would be cast for me, one of my opponents got 50 out of the 76 counted. No one knows to a certainty that there were irregularities in connection with the count, but a recount should be the source of satisfaction.

"It costs considerable money to finance a recount and it is a question whether it will be worth while. I have the matter under advisement and am looking into the law regarding recounts."

Dist.-Atty. Woolwine lacked but seventy-nine votes of enough to equal that cast for all of his opponents. If the recount should give him forty more votes and deduct the same number from the total cast for his opponents he would have no opposition at the November election.

BENEDICT STILL GUESSING.

The fate of Henry Stanley Benedict, who was badly defeated by Capt. H. Z Osborne for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Tenth District, but wants to be the Progressive candidate, still hangs in the balance. Secretary of State Jordan is to settle the question.

Yesterday morning when the Supervisors resumed the canvass of the official returns of the primary election a motion was carried authorizing the drafting of a letter to the Secretary of State to the effect that it "is the opinion of the Supervisors that 699 names written in various ways on the ballots were intended as votes for Henry Stanley Benedict." The purpose of this action was to leave the matter of identification of the signatures with the Secretary of State.

Despite the attitude of the Secretary of State, whatever it may be, steps have been taken to have a test case decided by the Supreme Court. It is contended by many men who are experts on election matters that if a candidate is defeated for nomination under the political party in which he is registered he cannot be a candidate of any other party. This question has often arisen and if the contention is the proper interpretation of the law many candidates will have no opposition in November.

CRISWELL IS NOMINATED.

Ralph Criswell, one of the foremost workers in the Socialist party, discovered yesterday that he had been nominated as the Socialist candidate for Congress in the Ninth District. His name had been written on a sufficient number of ballots to qualify him. "I have decided to make the race," Criswell said. "I believe that there are enough voters in the Ninth District who resent the fact that Charles H. Randall, a Prohibitionist and Democrat, got the Republican nomination, to elect me."

Mr. Criswell was given more than 10,000 votes in the same district four years ago and he says there is no question about him polling that many this time.

The successful candidates for nomination for various State offices are preparing to go to Sacramento next Tuesday to attend the various State conventions. The Republicans are jubilant over their chances of controlling their convention and it is said all of the nominees will attend.

W. W. Mines, vice-chairman of the State Executive Committee, who was elected a delegate to the State convention from the Thirty-sixth Senatorial District, his name having been written on the Republican ballots, was informed yesterday that he was also elected on the Socialist and Democratic tickets. "I suppose I will have my hands full at the Republican convention," he said, "and will not likely have time to go into the camps of the Socialist and Democrats."

NOMINEES TO MEET.

Frank P. Doherty, who was unanimously elected chairman of the County Central Committee Tuesday, said yesterday he is preparing to call a meeting of all the Republican nominees for Congress, Assembly and State Senate. The purpose of the meeting will be to impress upon the candidates that the county committee is going to get behind them and all candidates are supposed to work for each other.

Money for conducting the campaign will be solicited by the county committee and the announcement will be made that it should go into one fund for the benefit of all. This will prevent any independent candidate who does not care for the support of the county committee from seeking money as a representative of the party.

An error was made yesterday in the publication of the totals of votes cast for candidates for Superior judges. Friends of Judge Gavin W. Craig are proud of the fact that he received 66,339 votes, 10,000 more than were ever cast for a Superior judge candidate at a primary election. Following are the corrected totals:

Hollis M. Barstow	13,319
Gavin W. Craig	66,339
Frank G. Finlayson	46,374
William H. Fuller	46,976
Curtis C. Leperton	31,376
Robert W. McDonald	9,814

EXQUISITE QUALITIES WILL BE ON DISPLAY.

Comparatively Low Prices Should Attract All, for Stores Plan to Reach Everybody, Says Chamberlain—Other Cities in East Copy Los Angeles Idea.

W. E. Chamberlain, chairman of the Fashion Show Committee for the United Fall Fashion Show, announced yesterday afternoon that the show September 21 and 23 this year will outrank in beauty of design, in splendor of coloring and in variety of accepted modes all of the twelve shows which have preceded it.

"The styles this year, those that are beautiful and striking, are not entirely for the wealthy folk either," said Mr. Chamberlain. "I've seen goods designed for exhibit in this show which are exquisite in quality, and distinguished in design at prices which are comparatively low. In fact, it is not the purpose of the merchants this season to make a fad for exorbitant prices for frocks, coats and so forth, but to display to their customers so many alluring garments of moderate cost that buying will be brisk.

"The Fashion Show is the greatest idea which Los Angeles merchants ever have originated," continued Mr. Chamberlain. "It has been copied throughout the West, the Middle West, and now is making its way right into the Eastern States. The merchants of all great cities recognize in it a wonderful medium for display, and for stimulating interest in their goods."

Acting with Mr. Chamberlain in arranging for the Fashion Show will be J. M. Schneider and W. S. Lord, while Alfred E. Adams, secretary of the Retail Dry Goods Merchants' Association, will assist in some of the executive work, connected with the show. The windows will be unveiled the morning of Thursday, September 21, and their beauty and attractive displays will be a strong lure to the shopping public to visit the inside of every one of the stores of the association.

FIRE DIMINISHING.

Supervisor Charlton Rushes to Sunland Neighborhood.

Information was received yesterday at the office of Supervisor Charlton of the Angeles National Reserve, that the fire that had for several days been raging along the banks of Bear Creek, in the Santa Barbara National Forest, had broken its barriers, and was sweeping over the timber north of Pacoima Canyon, northwest of Sunland.

The Supervisor at once left for the scene of the conflagration, taking with him a force of fire-fighters from Sunland and San Fernando. Other than that the force was making good headway against the fire, there was no further information last night at the office of the local Supervisor. Residents of Sunland stated last night that the clouds of smoke showed a marked decrease at sundown over the previous twenty-four hours.

B. Mathews, special counsel of the commission, W. B. Hinrod, deputy City Attorney; Chief Electrical Engineer Scattergood, Chief Engineer Mulholland of the water department and Auditor Anderson.

CHANCE TO COMPROMISE.

"We really have hopes of getting together with the power companies," said President Del Valle. "We will ask for a rehearing by the full commission, not one commissioner, in order to get elucidation of questions on which they seem to be at variance. There are some legal questions and questions of fact. There is a great discrepancy in the findings of the majority and the minority of the commission. We think if we have a rehearing there may be a change which may be more satisfactory all around. We did not discuss the question of paralleling."

City Attorney Stephens said the chief point of the rehearing will be on the severance damages, which the city considers too high. The City Attorney said, however, that it is not so much the amount of the severance allowance as the principle on which it is estimated.

On this point Special Counsel Mathews said: "We hope by the application for a rehearing to convince the State Railroad Commission that as a practical proposition the decision as reached is not only unsound but will render in a large measure inoperative the condemnation scheme before the Railroad Commission."

Modern Artful Dodger Eludes Juvenile Authorities while in County Hospital—He leads Checkered Career of Crime Despite Many Sentences.

For a youth of 14, William Arens has had a checkered career. His latest escapade is to escape from the County Hospital. Now the juvenile authorities are seriously considering what to do with him when he is captured. He had escaped from the George Junior Republic; was arrested in Sacramento for carrying a revolver afterwards learned to have been bought with funds obtained from his parents in this city; was sentenced to serve 100 days in the Sacramento jail, and subsequently sentenced to Whittier when his father surrendered him to the Juvenile Court for using liquor.

William was taken yesterday from Juvenile Hall to the County Hospital for an X-ray picture of a dislocated finger. He slipped out of the operating-room and disappeared.

DANCING PAGEANT TO DEPICT EGYPT.

ANCIENT CIVILIZATION AS SPECTACLE'S THEME.

Noted Artist to Portray Queen of Ethiopia and God Isis—In Grecian Section She will Dance as Persephone—In India, Beautiful Parvati.

From the dramatic suggestion of the days of conflict in ancient Egypt portrayed in a small painting, Miss Ruth St. Denis evolved the theme of the much-heralded pageant of Egypt, a feature of the programme to be presented by her, Ted Shawn and 100 young women of the Denishawn art colony at Shrine Auditorium tomorrow evening. In this spectacle Los Angeles will have the opportunity to see a modern conception of the legendary wars of the Egyptian gods.

Special music for the Egyptian numbers were written by Walter Mayrowitz of Berlin. Nearly all the music was composed especially for this pageant and will be played by an orchestra of forty pieces under the direction of Louis Horst.

First appearing as primitive tillers of the soil in the Egyptian section, Miss St. Denis and Mr. Shawn will then portray the Queen of Ethiopa and Pharaoh, respectively. In the second part they will dance the characters of the gods, Isis and Osiris.

As the Lady of the Chair, the danseuse will open life in Greece. Later she will become the favorite, Hetaira, to Mr. Shawn's priest of Bacchus. In the afterlife the principals will portray Persephone and Orpheus in the realms of Pluto.

Closing the entertainment will be the Indian spectacle. In this Mr. Shawn will dance the hunter's part, and Miss St. Denis, his wife. The bazaar scene will feature Miss St. Denis as Parvati, a famous beauty, and Mr. Shawn as the Yogi.

NEW BIDS SAVE A TRUNK LINE.

Chatsworth Construction Now Within Estimates.

To Make Contracts to Firms on Final Call.

Commission Resents Remarks of Municipal League.

Chief Engineer Mulholland has presented to the Board of Public Service Commissioners an analysis of the two sets of bids received by the Board of Supervisors for material to be used in the construction of the Chatsworth trunk line, in irrigation district No. 2. It was shown that much advantage has been received by readvertising, and that the saving will probably be sufficient to allow of the completion of the system within the estimates.

The board recommended that the awards be made under bids received on the last call; that a contract for $81,061.20 go to the Llewellyn Iron Works; one for $346,852.99 go to the Lacy Manufacturing Company, and one for $279,642.33 go to the United States Steel Products Company.

The total price on the lowest bids received under the first advertisement was $765,556.12. The total price of the lowest bidders under the second advertisement was $465,121.62, or a saving of $100,734.50.

"This saving will, in all probability, enable the water board to complete the work within the estimates," said Mr. Mulholland. "It leaves 14.2 cents per foot for laying of the mains out of the money that will remain in the bond fund of district No. 3."

The commission ordered the advertisement for bids for dump wagons to be used on the Chatsworth line work.

Bids were received for 3340 feet of 14-inch pipe; 61,120 feet of 12-inch pipe, and 92,600 feet of 8-inch pipe, and were referred to the Supply Committee.

NO REDUCTION.

The commission denied a reduction in price for the water rate at the County Hospital, and set a temporary rate for irrigation purposes on large tracts within the city limits. The matter of purchasing that portion of the Eagle Rock Water Company's distributing system lying within the city limits was referred to the committee of the whole. A request from the Fire Commission for the installation of twenty-five new fire hydrants was received.

The report of Auditor Anderson showed that there is remaining in the power bond fund the sum of $2,743,092.20. There are unsold power bonds to the amount of $2,054,000, making the total available funds for this purpose $4,796,092.20. There are numerous outstanding contracts for power material, however, that will have to be paid for out of this fund.

The Hollywood Board of Trade made a vigorous protest against the municipal power transmission line being placed along the peaks of Griffith Park, and Electrical Engineer Scattergood was instructed to communicate with that body, showing that its apprehensions are unfounded.

OBJECT TO STATEMENT.

Members of the commission took strong exceptions to a statement that appeared in the last issue of the Municipal League Bulletin, to the effect that the commission had been "forced" to divert $350,000 from the water revenues for bond-paying purposes.

President Del Valle declared that the statement was absolutely false, and that the help given by the commission had been fully decided upon before the Municipal League representatives had ever appeared before it; that these representatives had made false statements before the commission, had been called down and agreed to send a written apology, but that no such apology has ever been received.

"Let this statement go into the records," said President Del Valle, "so that these gentlemen can take due notice and so find it if they desire to take up the matter."

The commission will hold an adjourned session at 4:14 o'clock this afternoon, and at 4:30 o'clock it will go into conference with the City Council on the question of purchase of the Edison distributing system and other matters pertaining to the municipal power project.

SCHOOL TROUBLES.

Hawthorne Woman Seeks to Oust Trustees, Alleging Teacher was Employed When She Had No Certificate—Defendants Claim They are Blameless.

The residents of Hawthorne are interested in the suit of Mrs. Paul Munch to oust from office A. O. Clements and A. A. Germain, school trustees, on the ground that they employed Miss Marion Mell as a teacher and that she did not hold a teacher's certificate. Mrs. Munch is also seeking to collect $500, provided under the law, for any person bringing suit in such circumstances. The action is on trial before Judge Hewitt.

Miss Mell taught four days and in order to get her pay it is alleged that Mary Cameron, the regular teacher, was forced to take the amount out of her wages. The two trustees claim they did not employ Miss Mell, but that when she asked if she could get work, she was told she might substitute for a day or so, but before doing so she must get a certificate from the County Superintendent. They say she promised to do so, but failed to go.

An Old English Handbill

advertised a public warning about coffee in its early days as a beverage in England. It said.

"You are not to drink it after supper unless you intend to be watchful, for it will hinder sleep for three or four hours."

That was 250 years ago. Today it is a well-known fact that sleeplessness, brought on by coffee drinking, is due to the presence of the drug, caffeine, in coffee. It is also known that coffee drinking is a common cause of various other ills.

POSTUM

For Poetess.

Mr. and Mrs. Pascal Burke entertained Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox, the poetess, at a breakfast party at their bungalow home on the Arroyo Seco, yesterday morning. As will be remembered, Mrs. Wilcox lost her husband last May and is living very quietly just now, but her friends felt that she should not be allowed to seclude herself too much with her sorrow.

Mrs. Burke, who was Marcella Mahan before her marriage a year ago, is also in comparative retirement just now, but is looking radiantly well and happy and proved a most efficient young hostess. Her few guests included Mrs. Oscar Bennett, Mrs. Frank Trask, Mrs. Clark Ross Mahan, Mrs. Frank Ruddy and Mrs. Alma Whitaker, all of whom had previously known Mrs. Wilcox.

Mrs. Wilcox was on Tuesday the guest of Ruth St. Denis at a luncheon served out-of-doors beneath a pergola at Denishawn, as nearly 100 airily-clad nymphs were disporting on the lawn in preparation for the pageant of Egypt, Greece and India to be presented tomorrow night.

Will be in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Hartwell, No. 344 South Serrano avenue, announce the engagement of Miss Emma Hanson to Mr. Harold W. Hemenway. The wedding will take place the latter part of October.

Plan Motor Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Daniels, who have in the course of construction a magnificent home overlooking the Arroyo in Pasadena, are leaving today with Mode Wineman, the artist and writer of polo stories, for an extensive motoring trip which will include a visit to the Gen. Grant National Park, and to the Mariposa Grove of Big Trees. Later they will settle at the Sentinel House in the Yosemite and make trips from there to wherever their fancies dictate. If conditions are found good they will go over the Tioga Pass to Lake Tahoe and on to the less frequented Big Seur country back of Monterey.

Clever Visitors.

En route to Guatemala, where he goes to supervise the filming of one of his fiction stories, Herman Whittaker, well-known novelist, has arrived in Los Angeles for a short visit. With him is Mrs. Whittaker, who is to stay in this city during her husband's absence south. Mme. Schumann-Heink, it will be recalled, includes in her repertoire several of Mrs. Whittaker's poems that have been set to music. Several affairs are to be extended these talented folk, who have many friends in the city.

Fifteen.

On Monday, Miss Katherine Rose was given an enjoyable birthday party upon attaining her fifteenth year—an event attended by a large number of her young school friends. Dancing, readings and music furnished diversified entertainment. A huge cake with fifteen burning candles lent suggestiveness to the decorations.

Wed Forty Years.

A surprise musicale and dinner reception was tendered last evening to Mr. and Mrs. James Carey Harvey, No. 2814 West Avenue 31, in observance of their fortieth wedding anniversary, with their three daughters, Miss Margaret Harvey, Miss Phoebe Loraine Harvey and Mrs. Ira Purl Fleming, as hostesses.

Twenty covers were laid and among the guests, others than those of the family, were Dr. and Mrs. Charles V. La Fontaine, Merrill and Ruth La Fontaine, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Snyder, and Walter B. Clausen.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey were married at Des Moines, Iowa, in 1876, and came to California several years ago.

Margaret Harvey, the songbird, is the youngest daughter and other members of the family are Mrs. Ira Purl Fleming of Los Angeles, Mrs. John Milton Cage of Detroit, Phoebe Loraine Harvey of Long Beach and Leroy Calvin Harvey of Tropico.

The affair was graced by the presence of five grandchildren, Thelma Harvey, Lillian Harvey, Marion Harvey, James Harvey, Jr., and Arnold Harvey.

Miss Lena Balboa

Of Yuma, queen of the Arizona delegation to the Portola Festival at San Francisco two years ago and now defendant in the local courts in a suit to recover love gifts of a suitor.

Says It's Slander.

SUITOR-SUER DOESN'T SUIT HER; TO SUE, TOO.

THROWING down the gauntlet of battle, pretty Miss Lena Balboa of Yuma, but now staying at No. 329 North Broadway, yesterday retained Attorney Chauncey Gardner and said that she will fight with his own weapons Paul W. Albrecht, son of a wealthy Philadelphia widow, who is suing the girl for the return of valuable jewelry and money he says he gave her.

She plans to bring suit for slander based upon letters she says Mr. Albrecht wrote to her mother and to her relatives in Arizona.

"I have placed all of these letters in the hands of my attorney and instructed him to begin action," she said last evening. "I will contest his suit. He never was engaged to me. Why, I wouldn't even consider marrying him on his own statement of his merits, ancestry and future prospects.

"I did receive two presents from him. On my eighteenth birthday he sent me a box of candy in which was concealed a diamond ring. Two months later he sent me a Christmas box of sweets and this box contained a pair of diamond earrings. He says he gave me $4100 at one time and $500 another. As a matter of fact, the sums he names are the sums he told me he spent in following me twice across the continent during the past two years. He was a liberal spender of his mother's money, but he did not give any of his money to me. His presents are all that I received."

Mr. Albrecht has brought suit in the local courts, but Miss Balboa will seek to have the case transferred to Arizona, as she is leaving the Coast for her home within a few days.

Miss Balboa represented Arizona as queen of the Arizona bevy of beauties sent to San Francisco two years ago to represent that State at the Portola festival.

would wait for me and when free would marry me.

"That was enough for me. I knew just what I was doing and what the penalty would be. I knew how the world looks on such love affairs, but nevertheless I did not hesitate a moment. I came direct to Los Angeles and joined my sweetheart.

"That is all," the girl said, wearily, the tears gathering in her eyes, "all except for the penalty. For the two weeks of happiness I will have to pay a life of suffering. I know that when Jack can marry me he will. If there is wrong, it is my wrong."

Wright and Miss Larson were eating their supper in an apartment-house on Westminster street, Venice, when the officers arrived.

"Idaho wants you, my boy," said Manning to the surprised man.

"Oh! Jack, it's you!" exclaimed the girl, rushing from the room and collapsing on a bed in the rear of the apartment. Then she quietly put on her hat and said she would accompany the man to jail.

"Yes, that is what you will have to do," said the officers, informing her that she is also wanted in Idaho and that the Federal authorities might prefer Mann-act charges.

HE ADMITS FACTS.

Wright declared that, while he had married the Beers girl, he intended to seek an immediate separation from her. He stated that he was forced into the marriage on a threat of a serious statutory charge, but that the law had no other claim on him. Extradition papers will be asked for the removal of both man and girl to Idaho today.

Wright will retain an attorney and fight extradition, he said.

HOLD UP SALOON.

Youthful Bandits Loot Cash Register at Gun's Point.

Armed with revolvers, but wearing no masks, two youthful bandits late last night held up the Louis Pianta saloon at No. 800 North Main street, and, at the points of their revolvers, forced Fred Pianta, the bartender, to turn over to them $20 from the cash register.

The bandits, according to Mr. Pianta, entered the place when he was alone, and, after asking for a couple of glasses of beer, drew their revolvers and forced him into the office of the saloon. They then made him open the cash register and hand over to them all the money it contained.

SHORT STORY CLUB.

The Los Angeles Short Story Club will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Y.W.C.A. Building. Mrs. Thyra Samter Winslow of Chicago will tell the club of her experiences as a story writer and journalist. The meeting will be open to the public.

also recommend that the pupils find out how many boys in the Los Angeles city high schools would enroll in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, should one be established here. If it develops that a sufficient number of boys desire to take the course the Board of Education will be urged to take the necessary steps to establish the corps.

BORDWELL FAVORS PLAN.

"I guess there is no doubt about where I stand on the proposition," said ex-Judge Walter Bordwell, president of the Board of Education, last night. "I have gone on record time and time again favoring the system. I believe in teaching the high school boys to be patriotic and in fitting them, if they ever have to go to war, to be efficient officers and an asset to the nation. If the time comes that they have to be soldiers they will know something about their duties. If, as we all hope, they are never needed to fight for their country, they will be better citizens physically from the military training, and will have a better conception of discipline. I think it is a good idea."

When a similar resolution was introduced last year by Maj. A. J. Copp, Jr., Judge Bordwell, Maj. Copp and W. J. Dashburn voted in favor of the proposition and Judge York, J. H. Bean, C. J. McCormick and Mrs. R. J. Waters voted against it.

LET PARENTS DECIDE.

Superintendent of Schools Shiels was noncommittal on the subject. He said:

"I believe it is a matter for the Board of Education and the parents of the children to decide. I have no interest in the so-called military spirit and do not favor it, if it will tend toward promoting militarism. If military training is introduced into the high schools merely to fit the young men for efficiently defending their country and for no other purpose, its results would be beneficial in so far as it would teach the students their duty toward their country and community; instill habits of obedience and a feeling of responsibility; and make them better physically."

ON FLOOD CONTROL.

A discussion of the flood control proposition will be made by the Board of Supervisors and Engineer F. H. Olmsted at the Normal Hill Civic Center in the old State Normal School gymnasium, Fifth and South Hope streets, Saturday evening, 8 o'clock. A varied amusement programme will be given. After an election of officers a dance will end the meeting.

Review and Forecast.

STAGE AND SCREEN.

BELASCO THEATER REOPENING TO MARK COMING WEEK.

The Belasco Theater will reopen at its old-time location Sunday afternoon, with a production of "The Fortune Hunter," one of the most popular successes of the stage in recent years.

Cecil Van Auker and Inez Plummer will be the leading man and leading woman. Mr. Van Auker is a young actor who has won an unusually generous share of success in leading roles with stock companies in the East and important Canadian cities. Inez Plummer is a very charming young actress whose achievements have been scored in some of the best stock organizations in the East, notably at Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theater, New York, and similar organizations in Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago. Miss Plummer has also created a number of important leading roles in Broadway productions.

George B. Howard will be the stage director, and in "The Fortune Hunter" he will find immediate opportunity to win a local popularity as a comedian, in the role of Sam Graham, the old druggist.

Morosco.

"The Song of Songs" at the Morosco, with Maude Fealy in the leading role, is proving one of the most successful and artistic productions ever staged in this city. The company presenting it is perhaps the strongest stock organization which has been seen here. The story, while a sensational one, has a strong appeal.

Despite the success of the piece, it is to be withdrawn the end of this week and "Rolling Stones" will go on Sunday afternoon. Douglas MacLean, the popular juvenile actor, will play the role which Charlie Ruggles created in New York, and Maude Fealy will have the feminine lead.

Burbank.

Hoyt's "A Temperance Town" is proving a success at the Burbank this week, with Edith Lyle, Warner Baxter and Frank Darien in the leading parts. Much comedy mingles with the drama, and the play is well presented by the excellent Burbank company.

Next week, commencing Monday night, the attraction will be "The Old Homestead," with Burt Wesner in the role of "Josh Whitcomb."

Orpheum.

Elizabeth Brice and Charles King will head the new Orpheum bill opening Monday. They will do a bit of musical comedy in vaudeville fashion. They have been stars of many successful musical comedy productions. Hans Linne's new dancing act will be another topliner.

Others on the bill will be Clarence Oliver and George Olp in "Discontent;" Princess Kalama and William Kao, in Hawaiian songs and dances; Cooper and Smith, in "Hotel Gossip," and the holdovers, including Mme. Sumiko and her Geisha girls, Duffy and Lorenze, three DuFor boys, and Sylvia Loyal.

Hippodrome.

Topping the new programme at the Hippodrome opening Monday afternoon will be Lew Hawkins, billed as the Chesterfield of minstrelsy, and too well-known to require any introduction.

Other features will be "The Joyriders," a frolicsome melody revue; Brown and Bristol, with "A Lesson in Flirting;" Valente brothers and their piano-accordions; Guy Rawson and Frances Clare, in "Yesterdays;" Bobbie Dean, in song and story, and the Edward Zoeller trio, acrobats.

Pantages.

Countess Rosita Martini is making a marked hit this week at the Pantages in Will Wyatt's clever sketch, "Woman's Wit." The playlet will close its engagement Sunday night.

When Prince Amenaris of Arabia, some thousand years ago, took part in a domestic tragedy, he little dreamed that he would furnish the plot for one of the most sensational of twentieth century dancing vaudeville productions, "Brides of the Desert." Furthermore, according to those who have witnessed the act which will be headline feature at Pantages Theater next week, the Princess Athena and Verna Mercereau, the stars who head the talented company, put it on in a manner that would make the old Arabs jealous. The act was staged by J. J. Cluxton of the Pantages circuit and is said to be highly spectacular in action, costuming and setting.

Clune's Auditorium.

Frank Keenan in "The Thoroughbred" is drawing well at Clune's Auditorium this week. The picture play is replete with action, atmosphere, humor and beautiful photography. The story tells of horse-racing days in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky, and is a concrete example of some of the romantic episodes which arose when the religious element sought to suppress "the sport of kings."

Miller's.

Theda Bara is again demonstrating her drawing powers at Miller's Theater, where she is appearing in "Her Double Life." This is a strong story of adventure and romance full of interesting complications and exciting action. Stuart Holmes, Jane and Katherine Lee, Walter Law and other Fox players are prominent in the supporting cast.

Pretty Ormi Hawley and Rockcliffe Fellowes (star of "Regeneration") are the featured players in "Where Love Leads," the attraction to open Sunday.

Tally's Broadway.

Edith Storey and Antonio Moreno, two of the most popular film players of the screen, will be featured in "The Tarantula" at Tally's Broadway next week. Miss Storey has a vampire role in the above-named feature which is said to be one of the most wonderfully acted on the screen.

Robert Warwick in "Friday the Thirteenth," is drawing well this week.

Symphony.

Viola Dana in "The Light of Happiness" will be the offering at the Symphony commencing Sunday. The story was written especially to fit the personality of Miss Dana, and has to do with an orphan left alone in a village community when her drunken father dies.

Lionel Barrymore is the star this week in "The Upheaval," a thrilling Wall-street story.

RIALTO.

CALCIUM AND CAMERA.

STAGE FACTS AND FANCIES AND STUDIO NEWS.

By Grace Kingsley.

So delighted and encouraged is Will Wyatt with the success of the Countess Rosita Marstini, who made her debut in his sketch, "Woman's Wits," at the Pantages Theater last Monday, that he is going shopping for a new play in which to star her.

"Mme. Marstini is booked for eight months over the Pantages circuit," said Mr. Wyatt yesterday, "but I am writing Marc Klaw today for the best play he can find which has a woman's star part of the vampire type. I believe such a role would suit Mme. Marstini's talent and style, and I have the greatest faith in her ultimate success."

Mme. Marstini received no less than fifteen floral tributes on the occasion of her appearance at Pantages Monday night. These she sent to the Children's Hospital, reserving only some roses that had been sent her by a little invalid girl.

Is a Film, Too.

Harry Holman, at the Orpheum, is improving his sketch, "Adam Killjoy," with a motion-picture opening and closing. He took over the Saxon company's headquarters yesterday and filmed some scenes to be used as a prologue to his act. They will be shown for the first time tomorrow night.

A Liberal Reading.

Douglas MacLean, the popular juvenile actor at the Morosco, who will have the leading role in "Rolling Stones" next week, is responsible for this one:

"I met a couple of young ladies I know one day on the street during the run of the Chaplin picture, 'One A.M.'

"'Oh,' one of them exclaimed, 'we just saw the grandest picture!'

"'What was it?' I asked.

"'Charlie Chaplin,' the young lady answered. 'Charlie Chaplin in 'I am!'"

Dorothy Flits.

Dorothy Saddler, who will be remembered as playing the part of the lady detective in Lasky's "Red Heads" at the Orpheum last season, has been in the city for several months. She leaves today for New York, where she will appear in vaudeville in a sketch by Harry Holman.

Busy Burt.

Burt Wesner, stage director at the Burbank, is to play the part of Josh Whitcomb in "The Old Homestead" next week.

Sincere Blonde.

Maude Fealy, who is making a hit at the Morosco in the part of Lily Cardos in "The Song of Songs," is the recipient of many queries as to whether that wonderful golden curly hair is all her own. She wrote somebody the other day:

"Yes, it's my own, and not by right of purchase either. Also I am a real, not a mail-order blonde."

Loves Her Art.

Geraldine Farrar, who played Joan d' Arc in the big feature just finished by the Lasky company, will appear with "bobbed" hair in order to increase her resemblance to the pictures of the Maid of Orleans. Miss Farrar, it is said, sacrificed her long, beautiful black locks for this purpose, and in consequence will have to wear a wig when she makes her appearance in grand opera as "Carmen."

Cupid Assisted.

Mme. Sumiko, singing at the Orpheum this week, is married to the orchestra leader who takes charge of the musicians during her act.

Asked whether she found it difficult to learn occidental music, she replied, "Yes, at first." And the first song she learned to sing, she coyly admits, was a little German love song, taught her by her husband, then her fiance, when she was a student at Tokio University.

Off His Schedule.

Edmund Lowe, whose second name is Promptness, was fifteen minutes late at rehearsal yesterday morning. He arrived breathless and began to make his excuses to Stage Manager Butler.

"You see, I met Edna Purviance in her new car, and she offered to bring me to the theater. She had never driven before, and a lot of things happened. We drove into the curb, and then the engine got stalled, and after that we hit a Ford, ran over a cat and knocked a small boy down."

"My heavens!" exclaimed Butler, "is that all. You are fifteen minutes late. What would have happened if you had had a real accident!"

"Why, in that case," Eddie replied, after consideration, "in that case I should probably have been twenty minutes late!"

Down in Bom-Bombay.

Harry Corson Clarke has a novel motion-picture scheme, combining the elements of both education and entertainment, the latter being a certainty inasmuch as Mr. Clarke himself will be the hero of the story.

Clarke is in New York, where he has made arrangements with James Sheagreen and Edward W. Fuller for the making of a motion-picture serial, with himself as hero, to present scenes in the various remote places which he will visit on his projected trip through the Orient. He will direct his own pictures.

Japanese Face Card.

Mme. Sadda Yacco, the famous Japanese actress, who opened the way for women on the stage in Japan, is reported to be on her way to San Francisco, where she will appear in a theatrical production. She will also visit Los Angeles.

Hunted Life Note.

Vivian Martin's latest picture for the Morosco company contains a thrilling scene, in which an automobile races a train. While filming this scene, the other day, traffic was halted at the Salt Lake track crossing, where the camera was grinding. The race occurred just outside of Los Angeles, and the assistant director was detailed to halt all vehicles on a certain cross-road pending the taking of the scene. Just as the excitement was at its height up dashed a man on a motorcycle. The assistant director held up his hand. The man halted, evidently mistaking the a.d. for a cop. "My gawd," he groaned, "pinched again!"

Newcastle to the Coals.

George Brown, the walking champion, whose daily races on treadmills at Pantages get even blase vaudeville audiences thoroughly aroused, will attempt to break his own mile record on a measured course down Broadway from The Times Building today at noon. Brown, whose racing togs are slightly suggestive of a burlesque chorus, should create quite a stir among the noonday crowds.

Can't Tame Stuff, B'Gosh.

Cameraman B. F. Reynolds of the Los Angeles Times-Universal Animated Weekly took a desperate chance at Catalina Island this week while securing views of a mountain explosion for the news pictorial.

The explosion had been arranged by the Los Angeles Harbor Commission, who were to use the rock from the mountain for improvements at San Pedro. The charge of dynamite blew off the entire top of the mountain and tons of rock fell from the peak from a height of almost 2000 feet. Reynolds placed his camera at a point which the superintendent of the quarry said was dangerously near.

"Oh, I guess I'll take the chance," answered Reynolds. "I'm used to this sort of thing. We have all kinds of explosions in our pictures, you know, and I've even been on intimate terms with a cyclone. I feel pretty safe here. Let her go."

Reynolds remained where he was, and when the explosion occurred the rock fell all around him, but fate lent a kind hand, and he escaped injury.

Fine Arts Explains.

Investigation of rumors to the effect that the Fine Arts studio is seriously curtailing its productions prove such rumors without foundation. Six directors are at present at work with their companies, and the whole staff of actors, writers and others are busy, it is stated.

Some stock actors not steadily employed were let out last week in order to give them a chance at other studios, if they so desired, it is stated. This, it was explained at the Fine Arts studio yesterday, may have given rise to the above-mentioned rumors.

D. W. Griffith is to return to the city about October 15 and start work on a new big feature. He is greatly elated over the successful showing of "Intolerance" in New York.

Speeding.

BUS RUNS DOWN AN OLD WOMAN.

Drags Her Half-block Before Machine Stops.

Bystanders Assert Driver was Speeding.

Under Arrest, He Says She Became Confused.

Dragged almost half a block after having been run down by a speeding jitney bus near Forty-sixth street and Moneta avenue early last night, Mrs. Emma Harmon of No. 137 West Forty-sixth street, 67 years of age, received injuries which may prove fatal, according to surgeons of the Angelus Hospital, where she was taken.

An investigation made by the police of University Station following the accident resulted in the arrest by Patrolman R. M. Green of the driver of the jitney bus, S. F. Donlap of No. 408 North Hill street. According to many persons who saw the accident the driver of the bus was making almost thirty-five miles an hour when the accident took place.

Although Mrs. Harmon, who was taken to the hospital suffering from a broken right shoulder blade, a fractured nose and a number of broken ribs, was unable to give the police a statement, the officers learned, they allege, that the aged woman started across Moneta avenue many feet in advance of the approaching automobile. The car is alleged to have struck the woman when she had almost reached the the curb and to have dragged her for some distance before Donlap was able to bring the machine to a stop.

The prisoner, who is being held at University Police Station on a charge of reckless driving, stated to detectives that he was driving his machine at about fifteen miles an hour and only struck the woman because she became confused in front of his machine. According to the police Donlap had no witnesses to corroborate his story.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.

CHIEF EVENTS OF YESTERDAY.

(At Home:) Dealings in the New York stock market again reached seven figures for the fourth consecutive session. Rails and motors appear to be the most popular shares. There seems to be no dearth of money in the world for war or peaceful ventures, and that a goodly portion of the huge profits now being made in the East will find its way into California is all but assured.

(Abroad:) The British authorities have no more than promised to look into the matter of the request of the United States government for the release of goods worth millions of dollars destined for America. The shipments originated in Germany and Austria and are being detained by the British in Holland. The United States trade agent who inquired about the matter abroad is said to be "disappointed."

THE MEXICAN LOAN.

Five months ago we were refusing to evacuate Mexican territory and rushing regiments wildly to the border. Now we are contemplating making Mexico a little loan. One does rather wonder whether that request for a loan was a threat or a promise. Did Carranza tip Wilson the wink that he would let us off with peace if we came through handsomely? Or did Wilson intimate that if Mexico agreed to be good we might be prepared to dig up a little reward?

Either way, we seem to be the goat. This too-proud-to-fight business is quite expensive in its way. One wonders is Mexico about to celebrate a great diplomatic victory, or are we?

THE FLOOD AFTER THE WAR.

With the end of the war millions of men now engaged in it will return to the factories and the fields. Frightful as has been the loss of life in the aggregate, it is a small percentage of the millions engaged and is more than offset by the efficiency of the survivors due to rigid discipline, to inculcated initiative and to a new-born energy, not to mention the women who have been made capably available through the exigencies of war demands.

The Germans proclaim that, while this war has been raging, they have made enormous additions to their merchant marine. With the combinations permitted by the German government, with the subventions used by a paternal, if autocratic, regime, they intend to wage a fierce conflict for their old markets and to fight for new ones. English shipyards are crowded with ships in various stages of construction, and the Entente allies, in their trade conferences at Paris, have announced their determination to favor one another and fight collectively for the trade of the world.

With no protective barrier these plans mean that American markets will be flooded with products which American manufacturers cannot produce as cheaply with the higher price of labor and the higher standard of American life. To replace this protection to American industry and American labor is the one big vital issue of the present campaign.

The voter who does not thoughtfully consider the future, with the impending conflict for trade by great and highly-organized nations, a conflict which will be relatively as fierce as the present war, fails to realize the coming conditions and imperils the welfare and comfort of himself and of his family.

SOCIETY AND THE MOVIES.

Of course our very best people hate publicity and all that sort of thing—so vulgar, you know. So we can imagine with what self-sacrifice New York's creme de la creme are lending themselves to Robert Walton Goelet's motion-picture play which is to depict life at Newport with Mrs. Vincent Astor as the heroine and all the other nabobs crowded into the scene.

Since it is obvious they have nothing but the highest motives for their graciousness, we know that they are stooping to conquer. They are submitting to this vulgar publicity for our enlightenment. If we mistake not this play will be an epoch-making example of what good manners, decorum and deportment should be. We shall see how to wear our clothes, what to do with our hands, correct table manners, how to accept a compliment, proper deportment during an introduction, how to lure and tame titled lions, how to treat the tradespeople and menials, how to manage a domestic quarrel with eclat and dignity, how to shop with elegant insolence, automobile poise, social aplomb, general polished sophistication. And perhaps, if we are lucky, we shall learn their most valuable secret, how to break all the rules of decency and get away with it.

At present it is rather deplorable, in a free and equal country, that some may sin with distinction and impunity while others go to jail. If the society motion-picture play does no more than enlighten us upon this interesting and desirable problem it will not have been produced in vain.

After the adjournment of Congress President Wilson is going up into the Wisconsin woods. Why doesn't he wait a bit and after the election he can take the whole Washington outfit with him.

THE MEXICAN QUESTION.

Secretary Lansing, at a luncheon given in New York to the members of the American-Mexican joint commission, delivered an address during which he said to the commission:

"If you would reach a complete adjustment of the matters affecting our relations which will satisfy the future as well as the present you cannot avoid considering the personal rights and economic interests of Americans who have found in Mexico a field for their energies. It is through the consideration of such subjects that the seeds of future controversy can be destroyed and entire confidence restored, so that the Mexican government and people may build on the ruins of war and disorder a new and more lasting prosperity than the republic has ever known, a prosperity founded on liberty and justice under a government supported by the united will of a free people."

These were fair words, but the Secretary did but beat the air when he uttered them. The Carranza representatives do not want peace or prosperity for their country so much as they want to make a cash round-up.

Mexico is a bankrupt nation—utterly and hopelessly bankrupt. It is unable to meet the payment of the interest on its foreign debt, let alone the principal, and cannot by any possibility meet the damages to foreign property it has incurred. The customhouse reports of El Paso, Eagle Pass and Laredo reveal that bones, ashes that contain mineral salts for fertilizers, guano, henequen, beans, corn—anything and everything that can be sold for American dollars—are being taken out of the country by the military pets and partners of both Carranza and Villa. Soon there will be nothing left and, already seeing this, Luis Cabrerra is after a foreign loan. The de facto government is having a hard time to subsist now, as there is hardly anything left to rob, the fine comb is every day combing less. The only man under the sun who would give him a loan would be Wilson, because no one could conceive a crowd of bankers loaning Mexico money now. No matter how large a loan Carranza would obtain, it would be wasted fast because these patriots are great spendthrifts. It would not be long, if they could obtain a loan, before they would be back for another.

The procrastinating, pusillanimous, pin-fling, bluff-and-back-out policies of President Wilson in dealing with Mexico having all failed to secure protection for American life and property in that unhappy republic, resort is now being had by means of the New London conference to bribe Mexican officials to refrain from further acts of robbery and murder by inducing New York capitalists to loan money to the Carranza government. We might as well try to bribe a merciless tiger not to leap upon a deer.

A society recently formed to collect and publish the facts concerning Mexican treatment of "gringos" in its initial paper asks the following questions: "Do you realize that men and women have been massacred in Mexico, their only crime being that they were born citizens of this great nation of ours? Do you realize that they are Americans—of the same flesh and blood as you? Do you, you who are reading this, know that American women have been raped in Mexico and then coldly murdered? Do you know that every crime in Christendom has been committed? Do know that in the archives of our State Department are photographs showing the house, the woman, the blood spots on her clothing, the whole terrible detail of one of the most dastardly crimes in history? Do you know that it was done by two Mexican officers—that it was repeated by over a dozen peon soldiers while the woman was bound and gagged? Do you know that the woman lived, but that her mind was unbalanced by the ordeal? Do you know that such things have been suppressed by our State Department?"

One of Villa's official dispatches reads as follows: "We have taken in battle 223 prisoners who, strange to say, have died on the mesa through rage and passion and we have taken and hold as prisoners 125 of the women of the troops."

The records in the various departments at Washington reek with authentic reports of murder, rapine, outrage, pillage, looting, arson and destruction of property in Mexico. "In five years," said Samuel W. Blythe, who went to Mexico and made a careful investigation, "Mexico has become a territory where no life is safe, where no property is safe, and where murder is a pastime."

The head of the Mexican members of the commission now in session at New London is Luis Cabrerra, Carranza's Secretary of the Treasury. Of this creature a prominent Mexican attorney who had known him from college days writes: "He was a past master of chicanery and had to be watched constantly in a case. He was always on the side seeking to break a contract or a will. He was always tearing down. He was once appointed head of the College of Law, but closed it because the students could not be got to attend. Upon his resignation the college again was organized and prospered.

"As a politician he was faithful at one time to Diaz as a man could be and, turning to Madero, idolized him, but soon became a bitter enemy of Madero, and his writings contributed in a major way to Madero's undoing. On this account he served Huerta, and as faithfully at first as he had all the rest, but before Huerta was through with him he had him locked up in jail at San Juan de Ulua, where the American troops found him upon the taking of Vera Cruz. This lucky circumstance made him persona grata with Villa and Villa used his talent like he used many others, and he was a willing bell-hop until he saw the bandit's star waning and it was not long before Villa carried Luis Cabrerra on his famous black list—that meant death if he caught him. It was in this manner that he came into Carranza's favor and finds him today with a Cabinet position, but rumor has it that he is today leaning on Obregon, that he is the brains behind the Obregonistas, and Carranza would have accepted his resignation, tendered months ago, but for Obregon's power."

It may be predicted that the New London conference will accomplish nothing and that there will be neither peace nor prosperity nor safety on the border until Wilson goes out of office and is succeeded by a MAN who will not hesitate nor palter in taking means to guard American life and property on the border and over the border by benevolent, efficient armed intervention.

The Rising Tide.

BLOCKADING ENGLAND.

Germany has notified the nations of the world that on and after January 1 next she will blockade the entire coast of Great Britain.

The term "blockade" as used in international law means the interception by a belligerent of the right of entrance to and, within certain limits, of departure from a place which belongs to or is in possession of the enemy. Though the term is in itself applicable to the interception of communication by land, its use in international law is confined to the interception of communication by sea, since interception of communication on land is a result of the general power of a belligerent to prevent any passage or communication through its lines or through any district which is subject to its control, while on the sea a neutral has the same rights as a belligerent, except in so far as they are subordinated to the special needs of the latter. (Hall on Int. Law, 4th ed., Sec. 257; 2 Riviers Droit des Gens., 258 et seq.)

The object of establishing a blockade is not necessarily, or even generally, the capture of the blockade port or portion of territory, but is rather to cut off all commercial communication between the enemy and subjects of neutral powers and thereby diminish its resources and render it less able successfully to carry on the war or resist a siege or invasion. (Wharton's Dig. Int. Law, Sec 361.)

It is agreed by the publicists and courts of all nations that a valid blockade can exist only where there is a sufficient armed force present to make the blockade effective (The Olinde Rodrigues, 174 U. S. 510;) and that a mere proclamation of blockade or, as it has been called, a "paper" blockade is not binding on neutral ships. (Wharton's Dig. Int. Law, Sec. 361.) This effectiveness is attained if the entrance to the port be watched by a force sufficient to render egress or ingress dangerous; or, in other words, sufficient to render the capture of vessels attempting to go in or come out most probable. (1 Kent's Com. 145.)

There seems to be no limit as to the distance the blockading force may be from the port or the coast to be blockaded. During the war between Great Britain and Russia in 1854 the blockade of Riga was maintained at a distance of 120 miles from town by a ship in a channel two miles wide which formed the only navigable entrance to the gulf. (The Francisca, Spinks 115.) In the case of the Olinde Rodrigues (174 U. S., Sec. 10,) it was decided by the Supreme Court of the United States that the blockade of the port of San Juan Porto Rico by a single armed cruiser was effective because the cruiser had a speed which enabled her in ten minutes to command a circle nineteen miles in diameter. (Hall on Int. Law, 4th ed., Sec. 260.)

These decisions were made before submarines were constructed and when the range of shore batteries did not exceed a few miles and when wireless telegraphy was not in existence. Now there are guns which, with the aid of a range-finder, can throw a dynamite bomb twenty miles into a ship that distance out at sea.

The German journals say that they will have, on January 1 next, a fleet of over one hundred submarines strung along the British coast from ten to a hundred miles distant from the shore. Over these will hover a fleet of Zeppelins and the airships can note the approach of any ship toward the British coast or the departure of any ship from that coast, and by means of an improved wireless apparatus can communicate to the undersea fleet a knowledge of the exact whereabouts of the blockade runner or of any British war vessels which may appear.

There may yet be developed a submarine to fight submarines, but at present such a ship is practically non-existent.

A neutral ship which attempts to run the blockade of a belligerent port or a belligerent coast may lawfully be captured and, with her cargo, may be confiscated by the captor and, according to the decisions of the United States and Great Britain, the mere act of sailing from a neutral port with knowledge of a duly-notified blockade, renders the vessel liable to capture as for a violation of the blockade (The Admiral, 3 Wall. U. S. 603,) and the fact that there is an intention to go in the first place to an intermediate port is immaterial. (The Peterhoff, 5 Wall. U. S. 28.)

If Germany shall be able to blockade the entire seacoast of Great Britain as she announces she will do and shall, fifty or 100 miles from the coast, overhaul an American liner bound for Liverpool, loaded with freight that is not contraband and carrying a number of passengers, it is her right to put a prize crew on board and take the vessel into a German port where a prize court will adjudicate her to be a lawful prize, and the United States would have, under the law of nations, no cause of complaint.

But the right to thus capture a neutral ship with her cargo is practically a barren right, for there is no German port into which the captured ship could be taken without going through the North Sea, which is so closely guarded by the British, French and Russians that no German vessel can navigate it.

The German vessel that captured the neutral ship might, by preserving from her papers and other evidence proof that she intended to run the blockade, have a right to sink her with her cargo, but that would not include a right to massacre her passengers and crew. The submarine would be required to provide for their safety, which might be done by giving them quarters on board the capturing vessel and taking them into a Holland port, or by placing them in the boats of the captured vessel and bidding them seek the nearest land.

The practical effect of the blockade of the British coast, if made effective, will be to stop neutral ships from undertaking voyages to England, for the rates of insurance charged would be prohibitive.

REVOLUTION.

"Bloodless, but yet a revolution," says a writer in a well-known cattle publication. "This happened at Washington, D. C., when the representatives of four railroad brotherhoods forced an eight-hour bill through both houses of Congress, having previously secured the support of the President.

"There is a little country town called Jedburgh in Scotland. It is the capital of the county of Roxburgh in the beloved Borderland. There in the old days of cattle-stealing they administered 'Jethart justice.' It meant hanging first and trial afterwards. It was effective in those lawless days. We are returning to it. Four railway highwaymen point their pistols at our Washington legislators and say: 'Pass this bill or we will shoot.' The word 'shoot' is changed to 'strike.' With bowed heads President, Senators, Congressmen rush a bill dictated by the brotherhoods through the usual course and it becomes law in less than a week. The public whom those men serve are never consulted. It is a stampede, a legislative hurricane and over a hundred million citizens or their dependents have to pay the piper. The aristocrats of labor have throttled Congress. The man who will need to shoulder a great part of this extra load in the shape of rates will be the farmer and ranchman, who in the summer work twelve to sixteen hours a day and have no friends in Congress except at election time.

"The days of arbitration are over. The quartette who load the railroad men are the judge and jury. You have no voice, only acquiescence and bitter experience.

"But revolution brings retribution."

THE SEX NUISANCE.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

This plaguey sex nuisance intrudes itself into every department of life. Even Presidents are not immune. Poor Woodrow Wilson could not settle down to business until he had attended to his sex troubles. Kings have always found it most embarrassing. Even the eminently respectable George V had an awkward little case in the law courts a few years ago. As for Mayors, Los Angeles, with all her yearning purity, cannot save them.

Highly efficient Germany manages to have at least one virulent court scandal in each reign. Remember the painful revelations of ten years ago?

The sex nuisance has become so permanently established in our midst that we can't quite believe in anybody. Even the most saintly of cities feels that its first duty is to the sex question.

And the great powers can't have a nice, decent, gory war without accusing each other of sex infamy. The church does not escape—parsons live in perpetual dread of the dratted thing.

Schools are haunted by the menace. No tender babe is so above reproach but what some annual school scandal envelops it.

"Votes for women" reeks with the scourge. Can't discuss women's suffrage with "the single standard of morals," "free love," "the right of a woman to choose the father of her children" and "venereal diseases" cropping up.

Political reformers always base their demands on the sex nuisance. A nice elderly gentleman at Monrovia is so disturbed over it that he is exploding with an idea for complete segregation of the sexes, with self-government for each.

The thing so dominates our pure minds that no female can safely talk to a male without a certain self-conscious defensiveness. If we are to believe the reformers we are all naturally, perversely lustful and lascivious. Nothing but lack of opportunity protects our virtue. Such epigrams as that, "A virgin is a young woman who met the wrong man at the wrong time in the wrong place" seems to be readily indorsed by the most worthy of parents, guardians, pastors and masters.

The pervading idea seems to be that if we are not lawfully provided with an outlet for our natural sinfulness, we should certainly be locked up in hermetically sealed compartments and chained to a cross.

A woman may possibly be above suspicion at 75 if she is quite unpleasantly unattractive, but there is no age limit for masculinity, many of whom in this saintly town wallow in seraglio reputations at 85.

The trouble is that a man is scarcely regarded as manly if he can't brag a few sex complications. He may be the most worthy, domesticated creature, but he usually feels called upon to affect the sex nuisance. You can't insult a man by calling him a Don Juan. He would blush to repudiate it. And the very nicest of women feel that their charms demand a few insults. They feel that they must prove that they could if only they would, you know. That's where we are such a lot of jolly hypocrites. While affecting to condemn the sex nuisance, we aid and abet it with zeal and fiction. We will be tempted, so there.

Stern business reeks with unfulfilled romances. The men blame the women, whom they always suspect of being potential sirens. The women blame the men, who are always understood to have designs on their virtue. And they both dilate upon their effective defensive operations.

As a matter of fact, this sex nuisance is the merest bogey. It's our unfortunate attitude of mind. The average man and woman is sick to death of the sex nuisance. Husbands and wives cannot settle down to any degree of comfort until they can regard each other as a piece of furniture. The great majority of us are neither attacking nor attacked. But we have been so steeped in this sex question that we feel it incumbent upon us to daily with disaster, just to prove our fine resisting powers.

Clothes are at the bottom of the trouble, that fatal charm of mystery. A Japanese writer asserts that his government has instituted compulsory mixed bathing in the nude as a "deterrent to reckless propagation of the race." One can quite believe in the efficacy of the method. Nothing could be more disenchanting than humanity in the nude. The artists to the contrary, stark nudity lacks all lure. I lived up country in South Africa where the Kaffirs don't even wear a fig leaf. The Kaffirs are intensely moral until the Christian missionary comes along and inculcates modesty. There is no Kaffir peril. Their minds have to be most painstakingly prepared to acquire civilization.

The Lord knew what He was doing when he denied clothes to Adam and Eve. Confound that insinuating apple. It promptly begat modesty, which is the whole root and branch of the sex nuisance. So long as the church and the law continue to insist upon public modesty, I shall suspect their motives. Men declare that they are pursued by women. Serves 'em right, considering what pains they are at to disguise their defects. Let men expose their bony, hairy chests, their spindle legs and their knotted knees and their sufferings will be at an end.

Every country wants population. And how do they go about it? Clothes, of course. See Germany, in the midst of her woes, finding time to condemn the "immodest" clothes of women. Watch England's smug campaign against nude statues. Observe United States preachers harping on the immodesty of women's dress. This hypocritical modesty is for the express purpose of fostering the sex nuisance. If they'd only leave us alone, the sex nuisance would die a natural death. And that's exactly what they are afraid of. As a matter of fact, we are inherently respectable, and it's any amount of trouble to make us, man or woman, dangerously seductive.

OUR FRIEND IN THE EAST.

[CONTRIBUTED TO THE TIMES.]

BY L. H. HUANG,
English Secretary of the Chinese Students Club.

"I HAVE traveled extensively all over this vast country (China) and have found that no other people of this earth occupy a warmer place in the hearts of the Chinese people than do the Americans."—[Julean H. Arnold, American Commercial Attache at Peking.

It is a matter of no small amount of gratification both to the American and to the Chinese nation that the friendly relations established so many years ago are becoming more and more firmly founded. Travelers returning from China bear witness to the fact of Chinese preference for the Americans, and in an article recently published Mr. Julean H. Arnold, the American Commercial Attache at Peking, who speaks with authority on matters Chinese, says: "I have traveled extensively all over this vast country (China) and have found that no other people of this earth occupy a warmer place in the hearts of the Chinese people than do the Americans."

The American today is undoubtedly regarded by the Chinese as the best of the foreigners in China, and in view of China's vast potentialities, this feeling is an incalculable asset to America. China is a storehouse of undeveloped and undiscovered wealth; there are mines to be exploited; there are fertile valleys to be cultivated; there are any number of resources waiting for the experienced pioneer; and it is the pioneer that the Chinese can trust to do the square thing who will have the benefits accruing.

Reviewing American-Chinese relations from the beginning it would seem that America has built her edifice of trust in the Chinese mind upon three pillars—insistence upon China's national integrity; equal rights in the industrial and commercial development of China, and the influence she has exerted on the Chinese mind through educational channels.

It is a matter of common knowledge that China has been the butt of international aggression—that Japan, England, Germany, France and Russia have all encroached, little by little, on Chinese territory, and that Chinese pride has been humiliated time and again by seeing her sacred heritage slip from her because she was too disorganized to defend it. It is from the American policy of the "open door" and from American sympathy and backing that China has drawn her strength to resist, in so far as she was able, these attacks on her integrity, and it is to this policy and friendly attitude that China continues to look for support and sympathy in her heroic struggle against further aggressions of her ambitious and unprincipled neighbor.

The impression upon the Chinese mind created by America's commercial and industrial policy is perhaps even stronger as a contributing factor to Chinese-American friendship. The United States alone has gone into China with the idea of giving her a square deal in her own development. Where other countries have by trick and wit got hold of the management of development concerns and directed the greater part of the profits into their own pockets, American firms have insisted on co-partnership, equal division of rights in the exploitation of her tremendous resources. It is due to this disinterested policy of the United States that China today is eager for a greater invasion of trade and commerce. It is not only American interest, American capital, that China wants; it is American methods, and these America is giving China in her schools both in America and in China.

Preference for American schools, fostered by the return of the Boxer indemnity, has grown steadily; and the increasing number of Chinese students in the United States each year promises a never-ending community of interest. China prefers American schools. Peking University, Soochow, Nanking, St. John's—all American schools—are the best in the country; and more students go to America to finish their education than to any other country. It is inevitable that the habits of mind they absorb, their outlook, their point of view will be American, and that they in turn will exert on their Chinese friends at home an American influence. And it is equally inevitable that America will find her investment in Chinese friendship a paying one.

CONTENTMENT.

Contentment isn't often seen where men have bundles of long green. The more a man requires, it seems, the more does worry haunt his dreams, and every millionaire I know looks like a cheap tintype of woe. I have a friend who once was broke; then he considered life a joke; he filled the air with gladsome song, and no one laughed so loud and long. It was a joy to meet him then; he was a tonic to sad men. But fortune slipped around, by stealth, and loaded him with unearned wealth. He comes to see me now and then—I wish he'd never come again—and talks so much of dole and gloom, of properties that ceased to boom, of plants requiring ready cash, investments which have gone kersmash, the grief that capital endures, the grief no legislature cures—he talks so much along this line, and puts up such a bitter whine, that when he leaves my humble door my feet are chilled, my heart is sore. Your wealth will buy a lot of things; all kinds of luxuries it brings, but you can't take it to the mart, and buy a glad, contented heart.

President Wilson once said a man was a fool to want to be President. Well, he needn't worry after March 4, 1917.

The political boss is still in Cleveland and they are paying out more money than the old-fashioned kind of some years ago.

It will be a national campaign of both national agitation and education. The people are getting down to the Wilson curves.

A strike of the railway shopmen involving twenty-two western lines and 25,000 men, is threatened. They want an eight-hour day, too. And why not? What think you, Mr. Wilson?

If the undersea U-boat Brumbaugh wants a real reception she might poke her nose out of the water at the entrance of Los Angeles Harbor, say about a cable's length from the lighthouse.

For those who cannot feast on venison during the present deer season veal is recommended. Perhaps some of the alleged venison is of that brand of meat. One cannot always tell.

Secretary Lansing is expecting another note from the British government on the subject of the interference with the mails this month. Don't hurry, John Bull, after election will do.

The value of finished products in Ohio during the past year in the manufactories of the State reached the total of $1,752,808,000. Some make things other than Presidential candidates in the Buckeye State.

The Philippine bill, without the Clark amendment, fixing the time when the islands would be turned over to the natives, is not of great consequence. But it gives the Democrats an opportunity to boast that they passed a "Philippine bill."

President Wilson changes his views so often that, following the Maine election, he may conclude that it would be good politics to abide by the language of the Baltimore platform on the subject of a single term for the President.

Denmark will make another effort to put over the purchase of the Danish West Indies. That $25,000,000 of good American money is pretty good to the Danes. But Denmark will have Iceland and Greenland left of her colonial possessions.

As an incident of the plague of infantile paralysis the little white hearse has been conspicuous in the cities of the East. Passing from door to door it has gone with its burden of departed childhood still on to death by the awful disease which the masters of science up this hour know but little.

The Beavers began reinforcing themselves with base hits right at the start, and a recount shows that they got to Jack Quinn for eleven. Even so, Mr. Quinn was quite effective in the pinches. In the seventh, when Portland busted up the 1-to-1 tie, two runs were made following an error which would have retired the side. In order to make it binding, the Beavers knocked a legitimate run out of Quinn with a couple of doubles in the ninth. Cutting out the errors and getting down to earned tallies, Portland would have won 2 to 0.

VERSATILE.

Reuther is a versatile southpaw. Not being contented with merely pitching the Hampats into a wilt, he blasted out a single and a double, scored a run and drove in another. Everything considered, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuther had a good day.

The other heavy shooting for Portland was done by Jack Roche, Bill Rodgers and Dennis Wille. Dr. Robert Evans, eye, nose and ear specialist, chimed in with a double in the seventh that stood for a run, and he counted one personally by diligent base-running in a crisis. Dr. Evans has been treating his own batting eye since last here, and can Freddie Welsh and his young daughter.

The champion arrived yesterday and will make a short stay at Venice, before going to Seattle to box a four-round bout.

FREDDIE WELSH ARRIVES AND SAYS BOUT WITH WHITE WAS PUNK AFFAIR.

BY HOWARD ANGUS.

FREDDIE WELSH, the lightweight boxing champion of the world, arrived in this city yesterday looking as if he had just spent a year in a beauty parlor instead of facing the punches of Charley White for twenty rounds.

The champion was accompanied by Mrs. Welsh and his daughter Betty. They will stay at Venice five days, and then leave for Seattle, where Welsh is to box four rounds.

Welsh made two important remarks yesterday. One was that he will box Ritchie Mitchell twenty rounds in New Orleans November 13. Everybody here thought Johnny Dundee was to be his opponent. The other remark was that his bout with White was a punk one. Others have said that before, but nobody expected Welsh to say that.

"The bout must have been a poor one to watch," said the champion disgustedly. "White stood flatfooted for twenty rounds. He wouldn't lead. All he would do was hang on and hug. When he gained a slight advantage he wouldn't follow it up.

WHITE QUITS.

"I will not call White yellow because I don't think he is. But he lacks the fighter's heart. He reminds me very much of Joe Rivers. He quit at Denver in the first round when I stepped to the center of the ring and split his nose open.

"That one punch took all the heart out of him. He just stood flatfooted. He waited for me to come to him. Eighteen out of the twenty rounds I went to him, not White to me. Twenty out of the twenty rounds he stood with his face in the sun. He never struggled to keep from looking into its blinding light. One would have thought he would have wrestled around and tried to make me face it, but he didn't. He just turned like a nice little boy and blinked at it. I didn't even have to turn him."

NO HEART.

"Somewhere about the thirteenth round he caught me a clip above the eye. It tore a gash and the blood streamed down in my face, blinding me. The crowd cheered. For a moment White rushed in aggressively as if he meant to finish me, just like Rivers rushes when he is on top. But a couple punches to the nose took all the fight out of him. He immediately stopped coming and waited on those flat feet.

"I don't know what is the matter with White, but like Rivers, he lacks the heart or guts or what ever it is that a fighter must have. He will never be champion."

After Welsh had finished expressing his scorn for White, a smile came to the corner of his lips and spread into a grin.

"Well, you see," said he, "Pollock and I figured White was the weakest of the challengers, anyway. Perhaps that was why he got the first chance at the crown, eh?"

HIS REASON.

Somebody asked Welsh why he didn't carry the fight to White if the challenger wouldn't come to him.

"Defending the lightweight crown," said Welsh, "is just like running a big business. Being champion is worth just $100,000 a year to me and it is up to me to take care of it just like a business man would that valuable a business. White was the guy who was trying to take it away from me. It was up to him to come after me and try to get it. When he stopped fighting, I had done my part. I had saved the crown. For me to run into danger would be just like a man running into a fire again who had already been saved from it."

TO RETIRE.

Welsh says that he will retire July 4. Ever since he won the championship Welsh has said this, so he probably means it. In the meantime he wants to fight all the legitimate challengers twenty rounds.

"Hereafter," he said, "all my fights will be twenty-round ones with the exception of a few ten-round bouts sandwiched in. I'm tired of the short affairs. Besides I want to prove that I'm a twenty-round fighter and champion." He might have added, "I also prefer the $15,000 purses for long scraps to the $5000 for short ones." But he didn't.

From the few remarks Welsh let drop yesterday Dundee is the boxer who will give him the hardest fight. Benny Leonard is the next most dangerous man and then Ritchie Mitchell.

"Dundee always keeps trying," said the champion. "He fights from start to finish. Believe me, he'll never quit like White. He has the fighting heart. There is only one thing against Dundee. It's too bad he is so small and his arms so short. Those two things will help me beat him."

CHARITY.

Before meeting Ritchie Mitchell in New Orleans Welsh will box across Canada in a series of short fights and boxing exhibitions. The gate receipts will be split fifty-fifty with the British Red Cross Society. This is to be Welsh's patriotic act for England. It will be his only charity act. After that he will come to America to fight purely for business and money.

Welsh is just a young business man in the pursuit of money. The only difference between him and everybody else is that he fights for his instead of digging ditches, running trains or keeping books. Also his is more profitable. Glory doesn't appeal to him, but the gold eagles do.

And, believe me, Welsh never loses sight of the money end. Somebody asked him yesterday if the collapse of the bleachers had a bad effect on him.

"Yes," laughed Welsh, "just $5000 worth."

Nerve!

This is George Brown, the professional walking champion, who attempted to bust the mile record down Broadway yesterday noon dressed in a garb that would have made Adam blush. He didn't bust the record, but it wasn't because the police stopped him. The jitneys got in his way. At that he made the mile in eight minutes, according to the watches of Judge White, L. M. Maynard and Art Sibler. Brown is performing at Pantages this week.

MANUAL HAS HARVARD COACH.

TOILERS TO START PRACTICE TODAY.

A. L. Benshimal, Former Crimson Half, to Aid Coach Ligda. Pasadena Starts Monday—Duffy Seay has Hard Proposition. Paddock Can't Play.

The Harvard University style of football will be taught the Manual Arts gridiron candidates this year, according to an announcement made yesterday morning by Principal Dr. Wilson to the Artisan student body.

This news was given out after it was learned that one of the faculty members of the school, A. L. Benshimal, has consented to help Coach Ligda work with the football candidates. Mr. Benshimal is an old Harvard player, having earned his "H" in 1906. Since graduating from Harvard Mr. Benshimal has had several years' experience in coaching high school teams in the East and has had great success with his squads. This is his first season on the Coast.

At present it is the plan of Coach Ligda to divide his men into different squads and put them under the direction of his assistants, Trotter, Craig and Benshimal. After the first team has been chosen one of his assistants will aid him with the first squad and the other will have full charge of the second team.

Coach Ligda of Manual Arts will give his call for football men today when the Toilers will hold a big rally at noon to stir up enthusiasm for the coming grid season. Mr. Ligda has already given out suits to over thirty men who were out last year and expects that they will all be out for practice this afternoon. Tomorrow will be the first real day for practice. Mr. Ligda claims that he will have over sixty men out for the team.

Duffy Seay, coach of the State championship football squad, is not overly enthusiastic over the prospects for a winning team at Pasadena this season. Of the eleven regular players Seay has but four men back again this season.

These four men, Capt. Steve Horrell, center; DeHuff, end; Chisholm, full-back, and Cory, guard, are the only reliable men he has to build his hopes upon for again winning the championship this season. However, in Horrell he has the best prep center in the south. Duff is anxious to get young Charles Paddock into the game, as he has the makings of a bear of a half-back. Charles is anxious to get into the game, but the senior member of the family has put the lid down tight on the proposition.

WARREN IN SEMI-FINALS.

Harvard Players Winning Matches.

Trojan Pair also Take a Doubles Match.

Princeton has an Unlucky Tennis Day.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.—Harvard's prospects for retaining both the singles and doubles championships in the Intercollegiate Lawn Tennis Association were considered excellent as the result of today's matches in the national tournament on the courts of the Merion Cricket Club.

G. C. Caner of Harvard defeated Leonard Beekman, the Princeton star, in the third round of the singles section, and will meet Jerry Weber, the Yale captain, in one of the semifinal matches, tomorrow. His team-mate, Joseph Pfaffman, won from Arthur Coffey of Princeton, and meets Eugene Warren of the University of Southern California, in the other semifinal singles.

Caner and Richard H. Harte, Jr., defeated Beekman and Philip Vandeventer of Princeton in the opening round of the doubles, while the other Crimson pair, Whitehouse and Pfaffman, eliminated Weber and Stoddard of Yale.

FEATURE EVENT.

The Caner-Beekman match was the feature event of the day and was watched by a large gallery. Beekman outguessed Caner in the first set and won 6-4. In the second and third sets, however, Caner got his long, back-court drive working with accuracy and precision and proceeded to play Beekman off his feet.

Pfaffman won an easy victory over Coffey in straight sets, 6-2, 6-1.

Weber's 7-5, 6-4 victory over Blair of Cornell was even closer than is indicated by the score as practically every game went to deuce several times before it was finished.

EUGENE WARREN.

Eugene Warren, the sole surviving California entrant, won from Sidney Thayer, Jr., the last of the University of Pennsylvania racquet wielders to reach the third round. Thayer won the first set 6-4 by clever passing when Warren would dash up to the net in Pacific Coast style. But in the second and third sets the Westerner acquired control of his short court drives and dropped them just inside instead of just outside the court. This steadiness was maintained throughout the last two sets and Thayer never really had a chance after Warren settled down.

Doubles: First round, Bilker and Knox, Princeton, won from Allen and Taylor, Johns Hopkins, by default.

Whitehouse and Pfaffman, Harvard defeated Webber and Stoddard, Yale, 6-4, 6-2.

Rowland Edwards, Pennsylvania, won from Benedict and Bowman, Cornell, by default.

Warren and McCormick, Southern California, defeated Thayer and Kennedy, Philadelphia, 6-4, 6-2.

Blair and Holt, Cornell, won from Hawkes and Clover; Leland Stanford, by default.

Caner and Harte, Harvard, defeated Beekman and Vandeveater, Princeton, 6-4, 6-3.

Eugene Warren and E. R. McCormick, the doubles team of the University of Southern California, defeated Sidney Thayer and Kenneth Kennedy of the University of Pennsylvania by reason of their fine teamwork. Both played a steady game.

COLUMBUS (O.) Sept. 13. — M. NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Officials of the Amateur Athletic Union consider the team of four men selected to represent the United States in the track and field games at Stockholm, Copenhagen and Christiania in October among the best all-around athletes in America. The team will be composed of Robert Simpson of the University of Missouri, Fred Murray of San Francisco, Ted Meredith and J. G. Loomis. Both Simpson and Murray, the two late additions to the team, are holders of world's records. The athletes will leave for Europe September 29 and expect to return November 13.

SYRACUSE (N. Y.) Sept. 13. — Expressive Lou, Tommy Murphy's bay filly, won the $4000 American horse breeders' futurity, the feature of today's Grand Circuit races, with ease. The Murphy entry led the field from start to finish in both heats and crossed the line with plenty to spare.

The real contest developed in a triangular battle between Suldine, Lotto Watts and Bingen Silk. Lotto Watts finished second in the first heat after a hard stretch duel with Suldine closing fast in the last few yards to take fourth place.

STIRRING FINISH.

The battle for honors in the second heat produced a stirring finish. Rounding the turn into the stretch, Suldine, Bingen Silk and Lotto Watts were almost on even terms about a length behind the speeding Murphy entry. Within 200 yards of the finish Traynor whipped Suldine into second place.

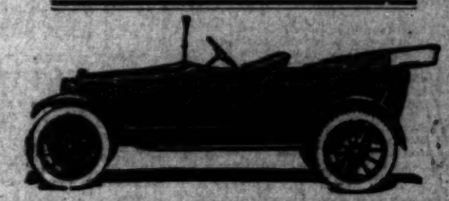
SAXON "SIX"

A big touring car for five people



A short time ago 206 "Saxon Sixes" traveled 61,800 miles without stopping. Each car covered 300 miles. The gasoline consumption averaged 23.5 miles per gallon.

A week later 38 Saxon "Sixes" raced in relays from New York to 'Frisco in 6 days, 18 hours and 10 minutes—a record in automobile speed from coast to coast. In both cases were the cars strictly stock models. In both cases were the drivers Saxon dealers—not professionals. And therein is the real significance of that average of 23.5 miles per gallon of gasoline and that time of 6 days, 18 hours and 10 minutes. For what these cars and drivers did is no more than you and your Saxon "Six" can do. Saxon "Sixes" identical in every detail with those 206 in the 300 mile non-stop run and the 38 in the Atlantic-Pacific dash are on our floor now. We urge you to see them at once. Tub Spencer Splits His Finger.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

DETROIT (Mich.) Sept. 13.—Detroit defeated New York in the opening game of the series, 4 to 1, this afternoon, and moved within two points of first place. The game was hotly contested with good pitching on both sides and much spectacular fielding. Coveleskie had the game well in hand until the eighth, when he issued his first base on balls. The next two men hit safely and a run was scored. Dauss was then sent in to relieve him. Pipp was sent in to bat for Shawkey, and Russell finished the game. Two more runs were scored on him on a pass, a hit and an error by Baumann. Spencer's finger was split when he went after a wild pitch. Score:

WHITE SOX WIN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Chicago defeated St. Louis, 9 to 8, in ten innings of a wild and erratic game today. Wellman's wild throw of Weaver's grounder sent the winning run across the plate after two were out.

The locals pounded Hamilton off the mound in the opening inning and added three more runs in the fifth, when erratic fielding by St. Louis helped them. Faber then tossed away the lead in the sixth when his wildness and three errors gave the visitors four runs. Bunched hits again put Chicago ahead in the sixth, but Jones's men bunched hits behind Nunamaker's error and tied it again.

Schalk was hit by a foul tip on the finger and had to retire, and Russell twisted his ankle sliding into second base and had to be carried off the field. Score:

BRAVES TAKE TWO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, Sept. 13.—Winning twice from Chicago today, the Boston Nationals gained ground in the pennant race and are now one and one-half games behind the leading Brooklyns. The scores of the games, which were marked by hard hitting, were 7 to 2 and 11 to 6. Smith's five hits, including a double and a triple out of five times up in the first game, and Maranville's fielding and batting in both contests, were large factors in the Braves' "success." Reulbach pitched thirteen of the eighteen innings for Boston. Scores:

BREAK EVEN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.—St. Louis got an even break here today, the visitors winning the first game by knocking Rixey off the rubber in the seventh inning, 7 to 4, and Philadelphia taking the second, 5 to 4. Cravath's home run drove in two runners ahead of him in the sixth and his double in the eighth helped to score the winning run.

For their trouble with the umpires yesterday Smith of St. Louis was suspended for three days and fined $25, while Bescher was fined $25 by President Tener. Bescher and Long were put out of the first game in the first inning today by Umpire Byron for arguing about a decision. The scores:

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—George D. (Buck) Weaver, third baseman of the Chicago American League baseball team, filed a petition in bankruptcy today in the Federal Court, seeking relief from creditors of a billiard hall enterprise which he started two years ago on the South Side and which recently closed. His liabilities were scheduled as $1002.86 and his assets as nothing.

an easy victory in the Syracuse stake for 2:17 pacers, winning in straight heats. Todd led the field in each heat.

The 2:10 trot provided a thrill when Leonard drove M.L.J. to win the final heat after finishing sixth in the first and fourth in the second. The result was a surprise as Howe Constantine had won the first two heats without apparent trouble. He finished seventh in the third heat, tiring rapidly after passing the half-mile mark.

Sir Bingen literally walked away with the 2:14 pace, winning each of the three heats.

WALL STREET TRADING EXTREMELY ACTIVE.

Over a Million and a Quarter Shares Change Hands on the New York Stock Exchange—Seventh Consecutive Session in Which Dealings Have Run into Seven Figures—Motors and Rails Popular.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Trading again was extremely active and strong today. Total sales amounted to 1,290,000 shares, making the seventh consecutive session in which dealings have run into seven figures. United States Steel and the motors and rails furnished a large percentage of the output. The movement in rails and other investments was the most noteworthy of recent years, but was overwhelmed in the last hour by a general demand for "war brides," especially Crucible Steel, which rose 6½ to 93. Further notable advances were registered by the high-price specialties. Baldwin Locomotive Steel gained 30¾ points and General Motors added 15 points to yesterday's gain of 37, the latter to 607. This establishes a new high for any issue in the history of the stock exchange, aside from Northern Pacific, which sold at $200 a share in the merger days of 1901. New high prices were registered by Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies common and preferred at 94½ and 98, respectively; Republic Iron and Steel preferred at 115¾, and Utah and Nevada Consolidated Copper at 33¾ and 23. United States Steel was plainly under the influence of further realizing sentiment between 104 and 105¾, within a point of its maximum record of the previous day, and closing at 105¾, a net gain of ¾ of a point. Baldwin and American Locomotive made gains of 2 and 6 points, with 4 points to other war specialties, including United States Industrial. Gross gains of almost 2 points were scored by Maxwell and Chandler, with more moderate advances in accessories, except Kelly-Springfield Tire, which was distinctly heavy. Sugars and leather helped to swell the rising tide, Marine and other recent favorites resisting the general upward movement again resemble to profit-taking at 1 point recessions. The bond market was featured especial features, except for a slashing of "United Kingdom 5's in fairly large offerings. Total sales, par value, $3,270,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

BULLISH MARKET ON LOCAL EXCHANGE.

OIL AND INDUSTRIAL ISSUES SELL HIGHER.

Union Oil Advances a Point. Home Telephone Common Shows Improvement—Ore Strike on Aztec Claim of Tom Reed Causes Activity in Oatman List.

Wednesday witnessed a decidedly bull market on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, and prices for the leading oil and industrial issues advanced sharply. Union Oil shot up a full point, and there was a heavy demand for the stock all day. Closing transactions were recorded at 86.37½, and from present indications it looks as if the upward movement in the oil leader would carry the quotation for Union up to 90.00. Home Telephone common featured the trading in the industrial list, and under the force of a strong buying power the quotation soared to 41.50 in the afternoon. Los Angeles Investment held steady at .02, and closing bids for the real estate security were half a point higher than this figure. The Oatman showed considerable improvement, and upon the report that the Tom Reed Company had encountered a rich ore strike on its Aztec claim the quotation for that stock rose to 1.53, with 30-day buyer contracts bringing 1.54. Carter was up to .68, but Ivanhoe dropped below the .07 mark in the final dealings. Big Jim opened at 1.20, sold up to 1.21, and closed at 1.15. A total of almost 15,000 shares changed hands, and bidding for the issue was well sustained throughout the meeting. Even Gilt Edge showed the effects of the present bullish wave in the Oatmans, and sold higher at .01¼. All signs point toward an exceptionally lively market for all classes of securities on the local exchange from now on. Trading in the Home Telephone issues is expected to increase greatly as the time draws near for the hearing of the application for merging of the local telephone companies on October 16. The common stock, in particular, will probably prove a great speculative favorite for the next month with Los Angeles operators.

Business Page: Citrus Fruits, Butter and Eggs—Current Trade—Local Produce Market.

COMMERCIAL.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

A few boxes of persimmons arrived in Los Angeles yesterday, and the same were immediately placed on sale at 10 to 11 cents a pound. Fresh dates continue popular, and there is quite a variety of sizes to pick from, running all the way from 12½ to 25 cents a package. These dates come mainly from the Coachella Valley, and are of an unusually nice quality. Berries are bringing fancy prices, although there seems to be an excellent demand for all varieties from the highest grade. Strawberries were selling Wednesday for 7 to 8 cents a basket; blackberries from 8 to 10 cents a basket, and raspberries from 10 to 14 cents a basket; guavas are rather plentiful at 6 cents a basket, and dealers report that they are moving slowly. Local jobbers announced yesterday their prices on cranberries for delivery September 30, the same approximating $10.00 a barrel.

All grades of sugar will be raised 15 cents a hundred today, much to the surprise of the local trade. It was expected that the market would not change for some time after the sharp reduction of 75 cents a hundred went into effect about ten days ago, but evidently the speculators figure on having some more fun with the ultimate consumer at the consumer's expense. Refiners claim that the drop in sugar prices of 75 cents a hundred has stimulated such a heavy consumption on the part of the public that the advance was justified. Whether the market will remain firm at the new level is anybody's guess.

Onions were raised $2.15 and $2.25 a sack yesterday, and there is a chance of another advance in the near future. Onions are another commodity that is controlled by speculators, and for this reason the consumer can expect to pay a fancy price for his onions for the next month or two at least. In the dried bean list Lady Washingtons have been marked up to $8.25 a sack, small whites to $9.00, and pinks to $7.25.

The sum total of the activity on the Produce Exchange yesterday morning was the transfer of 5 cubes of creamery extras at 31 cents a pound, a drop of half a cent as compared to the previous day. The receipts comprised 271 cases of eggs, 36,000 pounds of butter, 8200 pounds of cheese, 1 sack of beans, 75 sacks of sweet potatoes, 2626 boxes of apples, 1545 boxes of tomatoes and 2797 boxes of peaches.

LOVE WINS OUT IN THIS CASE.

Young Man Picks Out His Wife in Ballroom.

Collusion Made that They Would be Married.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Sept. 14.—"There is our future wife."

So George L. Gary, Jr., made this decision six months ago at the Maryland when he saw Miss Sunshine Miller, a sunny-haired high school girl, walk across the ballroom floor. It was the first time he had seen her and he did not know her name. That he is a good prophet is evidenced by the fact that Miss Miller announced her engagement to Mr. Gary yesterday afternoon at a meeting of eighteen of her Kappa Kappa Gamma sisters.

It was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Miller, No. 364 South Grand avenue, that Miss Miller told the interesting secret. The date of the wedding has not been fixed, but it is some time this winter.

Miss Miller graduated with honors last spring from the Pasadena High school. Two years ago at a school party she was elected Queen of the May, and at other times she was the recipient of honors. All through high school she was noted for her beauty, which is well expressed in her name, and for the number of her friends. She is 19 years old and Mr. Gary 24.

Mr. Gary is connected with a family of wealth and is associated with his father in the mining business. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Gary, Sr., live in Los Angeles and San Francisco. His business interests take him from one city to the other frequently. Young Gary is at present with his parents in Los Angeles.

UNIVERSITY OPENS.

The Throop University opened yesterday with the most encouraging outlook in its history. The registration for the first day was 103, which was considerably in excess of the record made at the opening last year. It is expected that the enrollment will reach 300 during the year. The reception was given last evening by the university for the students and members of the faculty. Judge Benjamin Bledsoe of Los Angeles, president of the board of trustees, was master of ceremonies, and he and Dr. C. B. Cornell and members of the faculty made short addresses in which they spoke of the prosperous condition of the university and the success of other successes ahead. Mrs. F. F. Bresee, widow of the founder of the university and of the Throop Church, was one of the invited visitors at the exercises last night and also yesterday morning. Dr. Knott presided at the morning programme, when addresses were made by the following: Dr. G. V. Fallis, acting president; Dr. R. M. Hills, recently elected dean of the Santa Paula Pacific Bible College; Dr. R. M. Hills, principal of the academy; Prof. M. E. Bowe, supervisor of normal department; Prof. B. Hall, dean of men; Dr. R. T. Orr, executive secretary, and Judge Fallis.

DENTAL SOCIETY.

The formal installation of the Pasadena chapter of the American Dental Society took place last night in the offices of Dr. Fred Wishard, with a large number of the members of the new organization from Los Angeles administering the official oath. This is the first branch organization to be started by the society, Dr. Joseph Homer, president of the Los Angeles branch, announced that each month a new link will be added to the society's chain. The principal address of the evening was made by Dr. Fred D. Pankey, a local dentist, upon "The Value of Belonging to the American Dental Society." Plans for a constructive advertising campaign were discussed and a committee appointed to investigate the situation and report.

WIFE SUES FOR A DECREE OF DIVORCE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 13.—Mrs. Lillie Lombard Stowe of Redlands, daughter of Dr. Charles Lombard, prominent Redlands man, today filed suit for divorce from her husband, H. R. Stowe, who is living at Bear Valley, on grounds of extreme cruelty, it is announced.

According to a report which came to Sheriff J. L. McMinn recently, Mrs. Stowe appealed for aid to neighbors in Bear Valley declaring that her husband threatened her life with a revolver. The Stowes quarreled over the children, it is declared, and the husband would not let the wife bring them with her to the valley.

START LIQUID FIRE FACTORY.

German Chemist Invents New Method of Making.

New Plant to Cost a Million Dollars, it is Said.

Lease Dock Ground at Long Beach for Site.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, Sept. 13.—Bringing ores from the mountains to the west of Imperial Valley, for the making of a destructive liquid fire for the use of European armies, St. Louis capitalists, under the direction of a German chemist, have started a plant here for the making of the product. It is said that orders for over a million dollars' worth of the liquid fire, if it proves all its inventors claim, await the building of the factory and the shipment of the powder.

Experiments with this destructive agent, conducted in the plant of the Long Beach Fertilizer Company, at a remote part of the Long Beach harbor, have proved successful, and the promoters today leased from the Los Angeles Dock and Terminal Company a plot of ground 800 by 1500 feet for the factory site. In sounding out the city authorities for a permit the capitalists declared that the powder was practically non-explosive.

A. N. Schwitalla, at one time professor of chemistry and biology in the University of St. Louis, is the inventor of the deadly chemical. He states that Germany's liquid fire has proven far more destructive than that concocted by the allies. His formula, he claims, is even more deadly than that made by the Kaiser's chemists, because of the discovery, in the Superstition Mountains, west of Imperial Valley, of the chief agent of the liquid fire.

Schwitalla, C. D. Crouch of San Diego and St. Louis, and others have formed a company capitalized at $100,000 under the name of the Long Beach Chemical Company. They state that they will spend within the next year more than a million dollars in perfecting their plant and in machinery for mining the ores necessary for the fire powder.

New machinery is being installed in the present plant to make the first of the powder shipments. Those who have evolved the chemical state that it has never been manufactured in this country, and that its composition is kept a profound secret.

JITNEY THREATS.

Threats of using initiative law, and a mandamus to block the operation of the new jitney-bus ordinance, were made by agents of the jitney-bus men this afternoon at a conference between the drivers of the buses and the Pacific Electric, with the City Commissioners acting as referees in the gabfest. A demand was made that the city back down in its determination to rule the jitneys off the streets occupied by car tracks, but this was refused by the Commissioners. The hearing was postponed until Tuesday, when the Commissioners are expected to pass the ordinance in its present form.

Confronted with a huge loss in operating through the competition of jitney busses on its lines here, the Pacific Electric is ready to tear up its tracks altogether if some relief is not given. In return for the elimination of the bus competition, the railroad agrees to greatly increase its runs and better its service.

AMERICAN WAR VICTIM?

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 13.—War news of today give an account of the destruction by a German submarine off the coast of Egypt of the naval yacht Zaida, on which was stationed Paymaster H. W. Dunlop, orange grower of this district, who enlisted with the British two years ago. The story states that a portion of the crew were saved, and friends here are anxiously awaiting word whether Dunlop was among those rescued. Until very recently he was stationed on shore duty at Liverpool and in a letter received by his people here within the past few days, he told of his transfer to the Zaida for duty in Mediterranean waters.

COIN LODGES IN CHILD'S THROAT.

[DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

POMONA, Sept. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Connor have taken their 3-year-old daughter, Pauline, to Los Angeles, where they are going to consult a throat specialist in an effort to have removed from the child's throat a quarter of a dollar, which it swallowed Sunday afternoon while playing with the coin. The money lodged somewhere near the bronchial tubes, but she experiences more difficulty in eating than in breathing. It is feared that a surgical operation will be necessary.

Train Your Hair as an Actress Does

No class of people devotes as much time to beauty as do actresses, and naturally no class must be more careful to retain and develop their charms. Inquiry among them develops the information that in hair care they find it dangerous to shampoo with any makeshift hair cleanser. Instead they have studied to find the finest preparation made for shampooing and bringing out the beauty of the hair. The majority of them say that to enjoy the best hair wash and scalp stimulator that is known, get a package of canthrox from your druggist; dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. It costs less than three cents for this amount. After its use the hair dries rapidly, with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.

PRIEST IS ACCUSED.

Arrested After Grand Jury Inquiry Regarding Offense Committed Again Young Girl and Released on Three Thousand Bail.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MADERA, Sept. 13.—Rev. Thomas B. King, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church in this city, was arrested yesterday afternoon charged with a serious offense against Margaret Haley, a 15-year-old girl, December 24, 1915. He was immediately arraigned and his bail was fixed at $3000, which was furnished.

Rev. Mr. King's arrest follows a charge which the girl made against her stepfather, Pete Cardona, local character, after officers learned three months ago that she was in a delicate condition. Cardona was held in jail some months. Three weeks ago he was released. Then the girl accused Father King.

Today the Madera county grand jury investigated the case. After examining Miss Haley and two other girls, Mary Welsh and Josie del Porto, and the clergyman, the jury advised Dist.-Atty. Murray to proceed against Rev. Mr. King by information. The arrest followed.

NEW COUNTY PLANS.

West End of San Bernardino Wants to Have Pomona.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

POMONA, Sept. 13.—The newest wrinkle in Los Angeles city and county consolidation development was revealed today, when a wealthy and influential citizen of Upland visited this city and conferred with local boosters in regard to formation of new counties outside of Los Angeles.

"I have come to you," said he, "with an invitation for you to join the west end of San Bernardino county. This proposition comes from Upland and Ontario. Pomona, as we see it, could not form a county of her own, and she wouldn't want to join Orange county. Neither would she want to be a part of a county with Whittier for the county seat. The only thing she would lose by coming in with us is the prestige of the title "Los Angeles county," and she will lose that anyhow if the city and county consolidation proposition in Los Angeles goes through."

STORE BURGLARIZED.

Thieves Pass up Postoffice and Victimize Merchant.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

WHITTIER, Sept. 13.—Early this morning the store of Mills Bros., at La Habra, was entered and the cash box, containing about $30, was taken into a near-by orchard, opened and rifled. The fact that the store is located in the same building as the postoffice caused the belief that the thieves were a part of the gang that has been burglarizing postoffices in Orange county. However, the La Habra postoffice was not entered. It is believed the thieves were frightened away before they had done all the work intended.

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 13.—The plea of representatives of San Bernardino, Los Angeles, Orange, Imperial and Riverside counties for establishing at the Riverside citrus experiment station a branch of the farm school of the University of California, was heard yesterday by Dean Thomas Forsythe Hunt of the College of Agriculture and H. J. Webber, dean of the Riverside experiment station. The movement is advanced by the parent-teacher organizations of the Southland.

FOSTER CHILD IS ALL-IN-ALL.

Pasadena Couple Agree to a Reno Separation.

"Will now Live for Little Betty," Says Wife.

She was Domestic and There Were Differences.

Admitting that she is to go to Reno soon to establish a residence and institute divorce proceedings against her husband, Mrs. Ralph Leavitt, prominent San Rafael Heights matron, stated yesterday that the one great object of her life will be the education and happiness of her little adopted daughter, Betty, a winsome tot of 4 years.

"When everything is straightened out, I shall devote my life to my baby and shall leave nothing undone to make her happy. In Betty's happiness, I shall find peace and in her care and education, I hope to forget my own unhappiness."

"Please don't say," she continued, "that I am a prominent and wealthy society woman, for I'm not. I am one of the quietest little bodies in the world. Just say, I am going to get a divorce, because Mr. Leavitt and I simply couldn't get along and let it go at that."

The divorce will probably be asked on the ground of desertion, Mrs. Leavitt stated.

The Leavitts have been married eleven years and are well known, both in this city and in Pasadena, in exclusive social circles. They have already separated, Mr. Leavitt living here, while Mrs. Leavitt resides in the San Rafael Heights home.

Back of the trouble of the Leavitts is a domestic tragedy, which, Mrs. Leavitt intimated, was due to incompatibility of temperament. She is domestic and likes a quiet life. Her husband, little Betty and the home were the three things in which she longed most to center her life.

On the other hand, Mrs. Leavitt stated her husband likes to frequent places of amusement. As a result, difficulties arose and a separation resulted.

When Mrs. Leavitt goes to Reno she will take little Betty with her and both will be accompanied by Mrs. Leavitt's sister, Miss Kate Parsons, who lives with her now. Before her marriage, Mrs. Leavitt was a Brooklyn (N. Y.) widow. Mr. Leavitt, who is a well-known real estate leader, was at one time an auto dealer, and has driven in numerous automobile races and is known as a sportsman and promoter of races. He will not contest his wife's action, it is said, and a settlement will probably be made out of court.

JUDGE SETS LITIGANTS RIGHT ON JURORS' PAY.

Federal Jurist Says Parties to Postponed Case should Furnish Money to Pay Jurors Called and then Dismissed—Insists Government Isn't Responsible.

United States District Judge Cushman cut into some new judicial ground, so far as local procedure is concerned, yesterday, when he ordered the attorneys representing J. J. Leonhardt and the Salt Lake Railway in a pending personal injury suit, to be summoned to court to show cause why they should not be jointly mulcted of about $90. This sum is required to pay the term trial jurors who appeared for service in the case, only to be told that the matter had gone over, by stipulation, until the next term of court. Under the law the jurors get $3 a day, when called, whether they serve or not.

On Tuesday, after Judge Cushman had dismissed the jury with the statement that they would be needed to try the case referred to yesterday, and following the adjournment of the court, the stipulation was presented. It was then too late to countermand the orders to report yesterday.

In making the order, Judge Cushman stated that if the litigants were about to settle the case without a trial, he had no criticism to make, but if the postponement was merely for the convenience of the attorneys and others, there was no reason why they should not pay the bill.

It has become quite a popular indoor sport, it is claimed, to have cases suddenly lifted from the calendar by agreement, only to have the government hold the bag for the fees of the jurors. So far as the Washington jurist is concerned he proposes that there be an end to the hold-up game on Uncle Sam.

REVERSES JUDGMENT.

Signal Hill Property Involved in Court's Decision.

A decision reversing the decision of Superior Judge York, in the case of Harvey D. Ellis and others against William H. Funk and others, was handed down yesterday by the District Court of Appeal. Judge York had granted the defendants a nonsuit and that judgment was reversed by the higher court.

The suit was on the part of heirs of George W. Ellis to have certain transfers of real estate and personal property, made by the deceased to Funk and others, set aside and annulled.

George W. Ellis lived at Signal Hill, and the real estate was deeded by Ellis in his lifetime to Funk and John H. Ellis of Riverside, on condition that they pay his debts, amounting to between $3000 and $4000.

FORGED BROTHER'S NAME.

"Jack" Miller was lodged in the County Jail yesterday by Constable Hayes, on a charge of forgery. It is alleged that he forged the name of his brother to a check. Miller claims that his brother owed him $9.50 for labor, and wouldn't pay the bill, so he tried to collect it some other way. Miller also asserts that he needed the money for the support of his sick wife and their children. Miller lives at No. 1121 San Julian street.

BITTER FIGHT FOR DAUGHTER ENDED.

SAUL LOSES CUSTODY OF HER IN MOTHER'S FAVOR.

Appellate Court Rules Against Wealthy Cattleman Who Took Children to South America and was Twice Adjudged Guilty of Contempt as a Result of It.

After a legal battle extending over many weeks John E. Saul, wealthy cattleman, lost in the Appellate Court yesterday the custody of his daughter, Dinah Saul, 15 years old. Under the order of the court he will have to produce the girl, who is said to be in San Francisco with a relative.

The Saul case, championed by Attorney Harry A. Chamberlin for Mrs. Emma Saul, was full of excitement. In 1908 Mrs. Saul sued for divorce and Mr. Saul filed a cross-complaint. Judge Houser denied a decree to both and awarded the custody of Dinah and George Saul to Mrs. Saul. Last February Mr. Saul obtained possession of the children and took them to Buenos Aires.

"I expect to have my bondsmen released from their obligations today, and the officials may place me behind the bars if they wish to do so," said Mr. Saul last night. "In such a case I shall immediately appeal to the British Ambassador at Washington, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, and my affair will become an international matter. I am a British citizen, and my daughter Dinah, who is now going to school in England, is not subject to this country." He said that he has spent $30,000 in fighting the case.

On his return Judge Houser adjudged him guilty of contempt for taking the children away from the mother. Subsequently Judge Reeve of the Juvenile Court found him guilty of contempt for failing to make a return in habeas corpus proceedings. Mr. Saul was committed to the County Jail. He sued out a writ of habeas corpus in the Appellate Court, which was denied yesterday. Meantime he was released on $5000 bonds, but he will be returned to jail, Mr. Chamberlin says, until the children are produced. The order of Judge Houser was that he must produce Dinah.

IN AND OUT ABOUT THE COURTHOUSE.

STABBED WITH SHEARS. Alleging that he was attacked without cause, choked and stabbed in the left side with a pair of shears, and later beaten with the shears, Peter J. Sinclair filed suit against Abdo Babbaty yesterday, asking for $5025 damages. The alleged assault occurred last Saturday.

SUES DOCTOR. Charles J. Davison, a Ventura rancher, who alleged in a suit filed yesterday that he was negligently treated by Dr. William R. Livingston, asks $25,000 damages, declaring that the stiffness of his left arm will interfere with his avocation. The complaint states that his left arm was broken and that he called in Dr. Livingston.

ROAD IMPROVEMENT. The Board of Supervisors yesterday instructed County Counsel Hill to draw up an ordinance creating a boulevard of Brea Canyon road and excluding heavy trucks. Because the improvement of the road was not provided for in the county budget, the Supervisors instructed the road commissioner to oil and grade it from Walnut to the Orange county line at an expense not exceeding $1000 a mile. The expense will be borne by road district No. 1.

WIDOW GETS ALL. The $1333.33 estate of Justice George W. Savage, whose sudden death on the 3rd inst., shocked the citizens of Lankershim, was bequeathed to his widow, Mrs. Gertrude B. Savage, according to the petition for the probate of the will filed yesterday. The will was written by Justice Savage a week previous to his death. He was found dead by an acquaintance a few minutes after they had engaged in conversation.

OFFICE BUILDING PLAN CALLS FORTH OBJECTIONS.

Committee Appointed to Work Out with Public Service Commission Scheme Which will be of Mutual Benefit and not Disrupt Project for New Library.

At a meeting called by the City Planning Association yesterday a committee representing a number of influential bodies was appointed to confer with the Water Board with the idea of getting it to abandon its plan to erect a fourteen-story office building on the corner of Fifth and Olive streets, facing Central Park, as it would obstruct the plans for widening Fifth street and disrupt the plans for a library, and municipal auditorium.

The committee hopes to be able to work out with the board a scheme which will be mutually beneficial whereby the board can erect its building on some other close-in site and the Robinson scheme for a municipal center be carried out.

The committee includes C. J. Colden, president of the City Planning Association; Mrs. Frances M. Harmon of the library board; F. W. Blanchard, secretary of the Municipal Art Commission; Mrs. James F. Scherfee of the Park Association; S. Goetze, vice-president of the City Planning Association; Orn E. Monette, president of the library board; Mrs. Lewis Works, president of the Woman's City Club; H. W. Frank, president of Harris & Frank; Mrs. E. R. Brainerd, past president of the Friday Morning Club; Mrs. E. K. Foster, president of the civic section of the Friday Morning Club; Mrs. D. C. McCann, Robert Rowan, Joseph Mesmer, Mrs. Shelley Tolhurst, Max Socha and George W. McDill.

WILL NOT SIGN, UNLESS COURT ORDERS

The Council yesterday approved the August pay roll of the employees of the efficiency department notwithstanding the objection of the City Auditor that the amount exceeds the one-twelfth allowance. The Council was guided by the opinion of the City Attorney to the effect that the Auditor should honor the pay roll.

However, this does not mean the salaries, including that of Director Burks, will be paid without further objection. President Betkouski of the Council voted against approving the pay roll over the Auditor's objection. Under the charter the action of the Council must be indorsed on the pay roll and the charter says it shall be signed by the President of the Council. President Betkouski said he will not sign unless ordered to do so by the court. He takes the position that the money was not appropriated by the budget.

City Hall Notes.

The Council yesterday denied the request of the Fire Commission for an appropriation to cover the purchase of a relief automobile for the Fire Chief.

The Board of Public Works has been instructed to advertise for bids to build a branch city hall and storage building at Van Nuys, but before the awarding the contract must advise the Council as to the bids received. If the bids are too high it is planned to construct the building by force account.

MAY RELEASE MAN WANTED IN TEXAS.

FAULTY INDICTMENT CAUSES JUDGE'S ACTION.

Accuse Clinton W. Roberts of Land Swindle, but Lone Star State Authorities Fail to Obtain District Attorney's Order for Prisoner's Return.

The case against Clinton W. Roberts, wanted in Brooks county, Texas, on the charge of attempting to swindle Walter W. Brown out of two valuable lots of land located in the Ellendale place tract, this city, in which Brown claimed to have an equity of $25,000, for a tract of land located in Brooks county consisting of over 2000 acres, and a part of what is known as the Jose Luis Salinas Survey, has taken a new turn that will be indicated today by further court proceedings.

The indictment against Roberts was pronounced faulty by Judge Willis on a demurrer and the matter ordered resubmitted to the county grand jury. A second indictment went the same route as the first and again the court ordered the county grand jury to consider the matter, and with the order was another to the effect that if nothing was done by September 15 Roberts would be discharged.

Monday officers from Brooks county presented to Judge Willis's court the rendition warrant issued by Gov. Johnson on the requisition of Gov. Ferguson of Texas, but as the time within which action might be taken by the District Attorney had not yet expired, an order of release of Roberts was refused, and he was not turned over to the Texas authorities.

It is understood that a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Roberts will be submitted to Judge Willis. If there is no additional indictment returned by tomorrow Roberts will be dismissed by the original order of Judge Willis.

The order asking that Roberts be turned over to the Texas officers was signed by Tracey Chatfield Becker, first assistant District Attorney. Later on Thomas Lee Woolwine, District Attorney, refused to countersign the instrument.

WOOLWINE SINGS SWAN SONG OF WHIFFEN-KUCK.

THE following statement has been given out by Dist.-Atty. Woolwine:

In relation to the recent investigation of the charge of Mr. Whiffen against Arthur G. Kuck, it is, to my mind, due the public that a statement be made by the District Attorney as to the result of the same. More than twenty-five witnesses were called before the criminal complaints committee of the grand jury, including Mr. Whiffen and Mr. Kuck, and after all the evidence was in, the net result was simply a question of veracity between Whiffen and Kuck.

There was not a scintilla of evidence adduced at the inquiry, outside of the statement of Mr. Whiffen, whose reputation for veracity has never, to my knowledge, been questioned. In matters of this kind, it is rarely possible to secure sufficient corroborative evidence upon which to found a criminal charge unless a trap is laid for the accused person, with witnesses to the transaction. In this matter, Mr. Whiffen never told his story to the authorities until it was too late for them to act.

Recently there have been various charges and countercharges of alleged irregularities by numerous city officials appearing in the public press, and it is the opinion of the District Attorney that wherever such charges assume any definite or certain form, the person making the charge should immediately submit the matter to the county grand jury, which is especially adapted to investigations of this kind.

As a result of such action, the guilt or innocence of such accused persons may be determined, and the charges either sustained or found to be groundless, and in this manner set at rest one way or the other. It certainly is not conducive to the welfare and peace of this city to have its government in a constant state of unrest, and public officials laboring under a continual suspicion of wrong-doing. If there is wrong, the wrong-doer should be punished, and, on the other hand, if the charges are unfounded, the people have a right to know it. It should be realized that the grand jury is powerless to act in any matter unless some substantial legal evidence is presented to it.

[Signed] THOMAS LEE WOOLWINE.

Alleged Bankrupt Concern Claims Assets Exceed Liabilities.

The schedules in the case of the Montezuma Gold Mining Company, an alleged bankrupt concern, which operates thirteen claims in what is known as the Rice mining district, in San Diego county, were filed in the United States District Court yesterday by H. W. Preston, president of the corporation.
